NARRATIVE On March 22, 1999 at about 5:00 p.m., New Mexico State Police Criminal Investigations Sergeant Jose Ramirez assigned me to assist New Mexico State Police Agents Wesley LaCuesta and Rudy Ramirez in the investigation of a Criminal Sexual Penetration case. This case had been reported in T or C, New Mexico at about 4:00 p.m. Sergeant Ramirez advised Agent LaCuesta had been assigned as the case agent. I arrived in T or C at approximately 6:30 p.m. and met with Agent LaCuesta, who advised the incident involved a victim identified as Cynthia Vigil. Agent LaCuesta advised the case also involved two suspects who had been identified as David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy, who were being detained at the New Mexico State Parks Training Facility. Agent LaCuesta requested I procure evidence from Cindy Hendy. I arrived at the New Mexico State Parks Training Facility at about 7:45 p.m. and met with State Parks Ranger Byron Wilson. Officer Wilson directed me to the location where Cindy Hendy was being detained which was in the front portion of the training facility and separate from where David Parker Ray was being detained. I observed what appeared to be blood on various parts of Cindy Hendy's clothing and skin. Cindy Hendy was photographed and her clothing and jewelry seized as evidence. I observed and photographed an injury behind Cindy Hendy's left ear, as well as cuts on her right ring finger and in the area of the right knee. Cindy Hendy had additional wounds on her right leg below the knee, and a scrape on her left forearm. Reference can be made to the attached copies of the Evidence Receipt for further information. Samples were taken of what appeared to be blood and photographs were taken of various areas of Cindy Hendy for evidence. Agent Rudy Ramirez advised David Parker Ray's vehicle had been stored in the garage of the training facility and requested it be photographed. All evidence collected has been subsequently transferred to FBI Agent Anthony Maxwell. Reference can be made to the attached copies of photographs for further information. At about 1:00 a.m. on March 23, 1999 I arrived at 513 Bass Road in Elephant Butte to obtain additional information to secure a search warrant of the premises. At about 1:30 a.m., I met Agent LaCuesta at the T or C State Police Office and assisted in procuring a search warrant for the premises of David Parker Ray, and an arrest warrant for Cindy Hendy and David Parker Ray. At about 6:30 a.m., I arrived at 513 Bass Road and relieved Officer David Candelaria in securing the crime scene. At about 2:30 p.m. State Police Officer Freddie DeLao arrived at 513 Bass Road to continue the scene security while I returned to the State Police office and met with several State Police agents who had been assigned to process the crime scene. At about 4:45 p.m. I arrived at 513 Bass Road with members of the State Police Crime Scene Team and conducted an overview of the area. On March 24, 1999, at about 9:00 a.m., Agent John Briscoe advised the white utility trailer located on the property was locked and a locksmith would be needed to open the trailer and search it pursuant to the search warrant. Bill King, a locksmith located in T or C, was escorted to the crime scene where he unlocked the white utility trailer. Bill King was then escorted outside the crime scene after which Agent Briscoe and myself entered the white utility trailer. Reference can be made to the attached copy of the billing statement from Bill King for further information. Upon entering the white utility trailer, I observed what appeared to be several explicit sexual devices, various books, and sexually illustrated drawings. Reference can be made to Agent Briscoe's report for further information concerning the contents of the white utility trailer. At about 10:40 a.m. I returned to the State Police office where Agent LaCuesta assigned me to locate and interview possible witnesses, including neighbors and acquaintances of David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy. INTERVIEW: LORRAINE M. HOFFMAN On March 24, 1999 at about 10:50 a.m., I met with Lorraine Hoffman, who resides at 511 Bass Road and whose property borders David Parker Ray's residence. Lorraine Hoffman stated she has lived in the T or C area for about thirty (30) years and had been acquainted with David Parker Ray for approximately ten (10) or fifteen (15) years. Lorraine Hoffman stated she was not sure when David Parker Ray moved into the residence next to her but he would often watch her property when she traveled and she would watch his property when he traveled. Lorraine Hoffman stated she was never at David Parker Ray's residence but they would sometimes talk over the fence.

Lorraine Hoffman stated David Parker Ray had always been polite and she never observed or heard any unusual activity in or around his residence. Lorraine Hoffman stated that, about three (3) months prior, she noticed an older van, possibly a Chevrolet, parked in the front yard of David Parker Ray's residence. Lorraine Hoffman stated the van had been occupied by a medium built, blonde female in her early forties (40's). Lorraine Hoffman stated the blonde female only stayed about two (2) or three (3) weeks before she left. Lorraine Hoffman stated she had no further information relating to this investigation. This concluded my interview with Lorraine Hoffman.

INTERVIEW: DORIS G. MITCHELL

On March 24, 1999, at about 11:20 a.m. I met with Doris Mitchell who resides at 523 Bass Road. Doris Mitchell stated that on March 22, 1999 a short time after 3:00 p.m., she had been traveling down the hill on Hotsprings Landing Road and observed a nude girl, later identified as Cynthia Vigil, near the intersection of Bass Road and Hotsprings Landing Road. Doris Mitchell stated she turned onto Bass Road and the nude girl attempted to enter the right front door of her vehicle but was unable to do so.

Doris Mitchell stated she observed blood spots on the nude girl's face and she observed the nude girl holding chains. Doris Mitchell stated the nude girl was light complected with light brown, shoulder length hair. Doris Mitchell stated the nude girl was about five (5) feet tall. Doris Mitchell stated she continued down Bass Road and through the rear view mirror, she observed the nude girl run across Hotsprings Landing Road. Doris Mitchell stated she met an unidentified female and requested she notify the police of the incident. Doris Mitchell stated she did not see the nude girl after that. Doris Mitchell stated she had no further information relating to this investigation. This concluded my interview with Doris Mitchell.

At approximately 2:00 p.m. I met with Sierra Count Sheriff's Deputy Peter Bowidowicztz, who advised that a former neighbor of David Parker Ray, identified as Virginia Henry, had information concerning the investigation. I attempted to contact Virginia Henry at her business, Jarvis Realty, but was advised she was out of the office.

At about 4:30 p.m., I returned to the crime scene to obtain additional information concerning the white utility trailer for the purpose of securing a search warrant for its contents. At about 4:50 p.m. I advised State Police Agent Frank Jacoby of the information. Agent Jacoby had been at the state police office working on the search warrant affidavit for the white utility trailer.

At approximately 8:15 p.m. I arrived at the State Police office and observed Agent Frank Jacoby and Cindy Hendy in the front yard. Agent Jacoby advised the investigating agents had been interviewing Cindy Hendy, however, that interview had been interrupted due to a briefing that was currently in progress inside the office. Agent Jacoby requested I watch Cindy Hendy while he attended the briefing. After Agent Jacoby entered the State Police office, Cindy Hendy began relating unsolicited information. Cindy Hendy stated that in late January, David Parker Ray began telling her about his perversions. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray advised her that, years prior, he had resided in Arizona and had been questioned by the FBI concerning missing women, whose bodies had been previously located.

Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray related to her that he "talked his way through it," and subsequently moved to Texas. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray referred to his victims as "packages" and he had killed about thirty (30) people, approximately eighteen (18) of whom were killed in the T or C area. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray related to her an incident involving an Oriental girl who he "had finished with in the fun house." Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray advised the Oriental girl was small built and had long black hair. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray told her the Oriental girl was dressing near the door of the "fun house" preparing to leave, when David Parker Ray shot her in the back of the head. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray related to her he noticed she was still moving, so he shot her in the head a second time. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray advised he was the ringleader and everyone was afraid of him.

former wife to visit him from Colorado for a visit and while the three of them were in the "fun house," Roy Yancy strangled her to death and her body was dumped in a ravine in the Caballo area. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray told her that, on another occasion, he had killed a man whose body was "dumped" in Elephant Butte Lake. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray related to her he had killed several women and their bodies were placed north of T or C on each side of the highway.

Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray related to her about an incident involving one woman whose body was dumped into a ravine. The body began to smell so he "kicked dirt over her." Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray further related to her that he later returned to get her skull and noticed that someone had dumped a large red dog on top of her grave, so he did not retrieve her skull. Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray told her Roy Yancy wanted to kill her, (Cindy Hendy), but David Parker Ray wouldn't let him, stating she was "not a package." Cindy Hendy stated David Parker Ray had told her he would pick girls up from Tucson and take lots of photographs and videos of them and would later burn the images.

Agent LaCuesta advised the briefing had concluded and the interview with Cindy Hendy would resume with investigating agents. Cindy Hendy was then escorted back into the State Police office.

On March 25, 1999 at about 8:00 a.m., I met with several State Police agents and officers at the State Police office for a briefing session concerning the David Parker Ray investigation. Agent LaCuesta assigned me to obtain information concerning Juanita Fair, aka Candy Fair, and Roy Yancy. Agent LaCuesta stated these two subjects may have information or were possibly involved with David Parker Ray. Agent LaCuesta also assigned me to conduct interviews with the hospital staff who had involvement with Cynthia Vigil's medical examination.

Agent LaCuesta advised me a subject identified as Johny Branaugh had contacted the State Police office stating he had information concerning the David Parker Ray investigation and requested I contact Johny Branaugh. Johny Branaugh stated he would be able to meet at the State Police office for an interview.

INTERVIEW: JOHNY M. BRANAUGH

At approximately 10:30 a.m. I met with Johny Branaugh and his wife, Jean Branaugh, at the State Police office. Johny Branaugh stated he lives about eight (8) or nine (9) blocks from David Parker Ray's residence. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy would often visit their residence when she was in trouble, drunk, needed money, or had been beaten up. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy would tell them some "bizarre things." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him of a blood spot on the wooden floor near the door entering the dining room. Johny Branaugh stated this blood spot was the result of someone having been shot in the head. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him David Parker Ray had friends in Phoenix and Texas, who had done the same things.

Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy had bragged about being involved with pornography and wild sexual activities. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him she "got off on pain." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him that, prior to meeting David Parker Ray, she had been "beat and raped and had to have the lips of her vagina removed." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised David Parker Ray could not let victims go, so "he would dust them." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy told him that David Parker Ray would strangle victims because it was not bloody and he would use "a strangler object." Johny Branaugh stated that, on March 13, 1999, Cindy Hendy related to him, "I have always been interested in serial killer magazines and books, because it interested me, and now I'm living with one." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him another employee of the Parks Service was a cross-dresser but this subject was not identified.

Johny Branaugh stated he didn't know David Parker Ray and had only seen him once during an incident when he had given Cindy Hendy a ride to David Parker Ray's residence. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy had been "beaten up" by a subject identified as John Youngblood. Johny Branaugh stated that when he arrived at David Parker Ray's residence, David Ray came out meet them. Johny Branaugh stated he didn't get out of the vehicle. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him David Parker Ray had advised her there were three (3) or four (4) bodies in the lake. Johny Branaugh said Cindy Hendy advised him David Parker Ray had related to her he would split them from the chest to the stomach so they wouldn't float.

Johny Branaugh stated that on March 13, 1999 Cindy Hendy came by his residence and said she was going to Washington State around the first of April to be with her daughter who was going to have a baby. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him she and David Parker Ray were going to Albuquerque to "pick up a prostitute for a playmate, because David didn't want to be alone."

Johny Branaugh stated that during the month of December 1998 Cindy Hendy and a female subject, identified as Candy Fair, came to his residence. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised Jean Branaugh that Candy Fair was a lesbian and began pulling Candy Fair's shirt down, showing a large bruise on her left breast, which she stated had been made by a suction object that Cindy Hendy had placed on her. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy pulled a corner of her own shorts down and alluded to a hand print on her right butt cheek advising she had received a "spanking" from Candy Fair. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy and Candy Fair were bragging about it. Johny Branaugh stated he asked Cindy Hendy and Candy Fair to leave because the Branaugh's were outside with their children putting up Christmas lights.

Johny Branaugh stated that, on another occasion, Cindy Hendy came to their residence and advised them that a female she knew only as Angela, later identified as Angelica Montano, had been at David Parker Ray's residence for three (3) days, bound with duct tape. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him David Parker Ray had "stuck things" to Angelica Montano's nipples and clitoris, she had been spanked, and "things were put up her ass." Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him David Parker Ray forced Angelica Montano to perform oral sex on him and made her "swallow his semen," and had used electrical devices on her.

Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him Angelica Montano had been made to defecate in a trash bag, in the living room of David Parker Ray's residence. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy also advised him she had talked David Parker Ray out of killing Angelica Montano on the agreement Angelica Montano not tell anyone which was agreed and she was subsequently released. Johny Branaugh stated Cindy Hendy advised him "there was more than one body in the lake, and more than one in the desert." Johny Branaugh stated he and his wife never believed Cindy Hendy's stories because they were so "bizarre."

Johny Branaugh stated he knew of a subject identified only as Chris, later identified as Merritt Storm, who had been in contact with Angelica Montano. Johny Branaugh stated Angelica Montano had since relocated to Albuquerque. Johny Branaugh stated Merritt Storm had advised him he had sent Angelica Montano money for a bus ticket for her to return to T or C, in reference to giving a statement to authorities. Johny Branaugh stated he would advise Merritt Storm to contact me in reference to Angelica Montano's statement. Johny Branaugh stated he had no further information concerning this investigation. This concluded my interview with Johny Branaugh.

On March 25, 1999 at about 12:30 p.m. I met Agent Ramirez and State Parks Supervisor Jerome Madrid at the State Park's Maintenance Shop, located on State Road 51 approximately five (5) miles east of T or C. Mr. Madrid advised Agent Ramirez and myself the office and vehicle assigned to David Parker Ray had been sealed for evidence collection. I took several photographs of the office and vehicle. The office and vehicle were sealed for later processing. Reference can be made to the attached copies of photographs for further information.

At about 2:30 p.m., I arrived at the Sierra Vista Medical Center in T or C, for the purpose of obtaining medical records relating to Cynthia Vigil. These records were subsequently turned over to Agent LaCuesta. Reference can be made to the original case report for further information concerning medical records of Cynthia Vigil.

residence located near David Parker Ray's residence. At approximately 8:30 p.m. Agent Maxwell and myself arrived at the residence of Mary Whitfield who resided at 517 Bass Road. Mary Whitfield identified the location of two bones which Agent Maxwell seized as evidence. It was later determined the two bones were not human bones.

On March 27, 1999, at about 7:10 a.m. I met with Mary Whitfield at her residence and obtained her signature on a Consent to Search form giving permission for investigators to further search her property for any possible evidence.

Further investigation of the surrounding area revealed several of the residences were vacant and appeared to be seasonal. Reference can be made to the attached copy of the Consent to Search form signed by Mary Whitfield.

At approximately 11:16 a.m., I met with Mario Digesu at his residence, located next to David Parker Ray's residence. Mario Digesu stated he had been a neighbor to David Parker Ray for some time and agreed to an interview.

Mario Digesu stated he never heard any screams or power type tools from David Parker Ray's residence.

Mario Digesu stated that, about two (2) months prior some unidentified subjects had camped in David Parker Ray's yard for approximately two (2) or (3) three weeks. Mario Digesu stated these subjects had been staying in an old camper type trailer, possibly white and brown. Mario Digesu had no description concerning the identification of the subjects.

Mario Digesu stated that at one time, he had noticed some weeds had been burned in his yard near the fence that separated his and David Parker Ray's property. Mario Digesu stated he never confronted David Parker Ray about it and felt David Parker Ray may have been burning weeds in his own yard when the fire got out of control.

Mario Digesu stated that approximately a year prior he had his property enclosed with a chain linked fence. Mario Digesu stated he always keeps his gate closed in order to keep his dog in his yard and had no knowledge of any bones having been brought onto his property. Dr. Mitova stated Cynthia Vigil advised she had pulled Cindy Hendy's hair, during the struggle. Dr. Mitova stated she clipped two fingernails from each hand with "scrapings" underneath for evidentiary purposes. Dr. Mitova advised these clippings were turned over to police officials along with the rape kit.

Dr. Mitova stated she did not do an internal examination since the only penetration to Cynthia Vigil had been with artificial objects. Dr. Mitova stated Cynthia Vigil appeared to be familiar with the rape kit. NARRATIVE for months, then would go into a cycle and draw and make audio tapes and masturbate, then he would go out of the cycle and not go into the trailer for a couple of more months.
On August 21, 2001 at approximately 10:00 a.m. I met with FBI Agent John Schum, FBI Psychological Profiler Mary Ellen O'Tool, Assistant District Attorney Jim Yontz, and David Parker Ray's defense attorney, Lee McMillan at the District Attorney's Office in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. This meeting was in reference to impending interviews with David Parker Ray in conjunction with a plea agreement, which would allow him to be sentenced in a federal correctional facility after he plead guilty to a federal charge of White Slavery. The agreement stipulated that David Parker Ray would provide information relating to his past criminal violations. The plea agreement stipulated that David Parker Ray would agree to a minimum of one hundred (100) hours of interviews. During the briefing, it was decided that the interview would be conducted by Agent Schum. The seating arrangements would allow Mr. McMillan to sit directly behind David Parker Ray. Mr. Yontz, Ms. O'Tool, and myself would be seated behind Mr. McMillan to eliminate distractions to David Parker Ray. The interviews would be tape recorded. At approximately 11:45 a.m. David Parker Ray was escorted into the conference room where the interviews were to be conducted. David Parker Ray was introduced to each person in the room and was advised the interviews would be conducted with those of us present. David Parker Ray stated he did not mind, except he had a problem with a representative from State Police being present due to issues he has with State Police. David Parker Ray advised me that it was nothing personal, but reverted back to March 1999 during the initial investigation when former Department of Public Safety Cabinet Secretary Darren White had made comments to the news media which referred to David Parker Ray as being a nightmare who is behind bars and as being a monster. David Parker Ray stated those national comments defamed his character and he felt it made it difficult for him to receive a fair trial. His concerns were acknowledged, but was advised that I would remain in the conference room during the interviews. David Parker Ray referred to his sexual fetishes as being an addition and that it was wide spread. He stated Law Enforcement Agencies "need to wake up and smell the roses." He stated that during the mid 1960's and 1970's he read Sadomasochism material in magazines such as Fetish Times and Screw. He stated the Sadomasochism fetish went into the closet in the late 1970's and many of the Sadomasochism magazines went out of business. He stated that it was possible to purchase Sadomasochism equipment on the underground market. David Parker Ray stated he likes bondage activities and is interested in all types of bondage fetishes. He stated that in the late 1970's he realized that Sadomasochism began dominating a large part of his time and he felt he needed to read up on it. He stated that at during that time, he was working at a construction company in Gallup and resided in the south valley of Albuquerque. He stated he has wide spread knowledge of Sadomasochism and Bondage and Discipline from researching the topic in libraries, approximately twenty (20) years prior. He stated that when he was young, he read True Crime magazines initially for education, then later for entertainment. David Parker Ray stated he created the trailer, commonly referred to as the Toybox, as a museum and conversation piece. He learned about the items inside the Toybox from books and further stated a lot of the items in the Toybox were not used. David Parker Ray is susceptible to subliminal messages from various items such as shampoo bottles and other phallus shaped objects. He stated his fantasy stage involves cycles and steps. This allows him to step in and out of his fantasies while he remains in the cycle. He might not go inside the Toybox

David Parker Ray stated there were a few periods during his life when he would not go into his cycle or when he was "step down" as he referred to it. One of the periods was when he was in the U. S. Army. Another period was when he met his wife, Glenda Ray, and he was "stepped down" for three (3) years. He stated he was a member of the New Mexico Mounted Patrol and during that time, he was "stepped down." He stated Glenda Ray gave him a Speckled Bird (speed narcotic) which caused him to "step up." He stated that at one time he was teaching and would see objects that reminded him of sex. These objects would remain on his mind through out the day and he would later draw, make objects or audio tapes, which would help until got bored with it. His first drawings were of girls wearing clothes.

His fantasies escalated from thoughts to consensual partners. His type of bondage equipment progressed into Sadomasochism type of equipment. He stated Bondage and Discipline is his reality while Sadomasochism is his fantasy. He described Bondage and Discipline as being with light pain, spanking and breasts bondage. He stated he does not like to cause extreme pain and described blood as sacred and feels it is an atrocity when let out of the veins. He stated Sadomasochism is illegal and when someone is involved with it, they have gone over the line. He stated Sadomasochism involves people who are dominant or submissive where as Bondage and Discipline is all about domination. Other terminology he uses for dominant is 'top' and another term he uses for submissive is 'bottom'.

David Parker Ray stated he played the audio tape he made to Cindy Vigil for shock and entertainment purposes to watch her reaction but she fell asleep half way through it. He has played the audio tape for a several people but they usually get bored with it. In referring to the Toybox, he stated it was designed to shock people. David Parker Ray stated he was not a Sadomasochist by his definition, which is one who works in death camps and has many variations making it difficult to profile. He stated the difference between Sadomasochism and Bondage and Discipline is that there is no physical injuries with Bondage and Discipline, just red marks and light bruising. Sadomasochism leaves whelps, cuts, and blisters from hot wax where as Bondage and Discipline's use of hot wax only leaves red marks. He stated that it was possible for Sadomasochism being consensual and legal. He believed children are swinging toward Sadomasochism due to a lack of sex education. They are bored and susceptible to any stimulation if they are allowed. He stated his mind is active and he is unable to concentrate on one thing for very long, which was a problem for him when he was a child.

David Parker Ray stated he could be "stepped down" for years but when he is "stepped up" he goes into highs and lows and referred to it as waves.

He stated that when he met Cindy Hendy, he was dating Mela, identified as Pamela McQuin, while she and Cindy Hendy were roommates. He met Candy Fair while she was visiting Cindy Hendy and Pamela McQuin and they "hit it off." He stated Candy Fair was Gay and had not been with a male for eight (8) years prior to their meeting. Candy Fair commented that she was into Bondage and Discipline, which resulted Bondage and Discipline sessions. Candy Fair wanted to move into David Parker Ray's residence but she did not want to give up her "sugar momma" in Ruidoso. He stated he and Candy Fair and Cindy Hendy engaged in a "threesome" and Candy Fair sparked his "step up". While in his "step down," he would only fantasize and masturbate. The fantasies would pass quickly and compared it to his drives from Truth or Consequences to Deming. He stated Cindy Hendy eventually became his sex partner but she did not like being electrically shocked as Candy Fair did. He stated after he and Cindy Hendy got together, Candy Fair was "out of the picture."

David Parker Ray stated that after Joanie Lee left him in 1994, he began working on the Toybox. He was working for a construction company at that time and had worked for that company for one and a half (1 1/2) years. He stated he came off step afterwards. After he met Candy Fair, his "whole life went crazy." He stated Candy Fair worked in a Bondage and Discipline house as a submissive when she was not at his residence. He was satisfied when she was at his residence, but when she was gone, he kept his mind busy. He stated that if he did not have consensual partners he would fantasize. His fantasies usually goes well but he can have a bad fantasy.

David Parker Ray described a bad fantasy when a girl with a baby was hitch hiking and he stopped and gave her a ride. He stated it occurred on a Sunday night he was leaving Albuquerque to return to Churchrock for work that week. He stated he drove up Coors Boulevard and down Central Avenue when he observed a woman holding a baby, hitch hiking. He described the woman as being an Anglo woman in her twenty's (20's). He bypassed her and continued on. He stated he begin fantasizing about picking her up. It was a bad fantasy because the baby was always in the way. He did not control the baby in this fantasy and allowed the mother to breast feed the baby by placing the baby on the mother's chest. Watching the baby breast feed from the mother was a "turn on" for him.

He lived in a motor home parked at the Churchrock Mill where he kept her and the baby in the rear bedroom. He engaged in vaginal sex with her while she was in bondage and utilized a dildo on her while her legs were tied back. He controlled outside interference's with the use of mechanics, but did not specify how. He stated he was unable to separate the baby from the fantasy and the baby would need a diaper change or would cry, which would break up the fantasy. He stated he kept the woman and baby for approximately five (5) days and then released her. This was the only fantasy that involved a child. The fantasy allowed for seclusion and the woman resisted which allowed for domination and resistance. He stated that if he had access to his fantasy log, he could remember more. He stated this particular fantasy was an abduction fantasy and lasted for six (6) months but did not play out. He stated he dropped the woman and her baby off on the road east of Gallup and she continued to California.

David Parker Ray stated that on another occasion, after the fantasy with the woman and baby ended, he was traveling to Churchrock when he observed two (2) Navajo girls and their brother walking along side the roadway approximately five (5) miles east of Gallup. He stated the brother was walking a considerable distance in front of the girls. He stated he gave them a ride to the Churchrock turnoff and dropped them off. The girls advised him they were sisters and were around the age of fifteen (15) years. He continued north while the girls and their brother proceeded south. He then created a fantasy around this incident. In his fantasy, he picked the two girls up and drove past their brother. He continued to Churchrock where he forced them to have sex with each other by force and intimidation. He stated that since he is not attracted to Navajo girls he altered their appearance. He engaged in forced sex utilizing bondage and dildos. He stated that during that time his desire to inflict pain was not developed but progressed later in his life. During his time with the two girls, he engaged in sexual intercourse with them and also utilized a dildo.

They were restrained but he did not remember using a gag. The gag he uses was described as a ball-gag, which he described as being a ball placed in the mouth of the victim with a strap around their head to hold it in place. He stated a ball-gag is dangerous and a breathing tube needs to be placed through it. He stated he had a ball-gag, which should have been located inside his motor home, when it was searched during the initial investigation. During his time with the girls, he always kept one of them restrained. He stated that in his fantasies, as well as realities, engaging in sexual activities with one girl while the other one is in bondage is a big "turn on" for him. He stated that if something went wrong in his fantasies he would leave it until the following day and then start again. In his fantasies he never used guns or knives and never used anything that would result in blood because he does not like blood.

He stated that in the late 1970's after the fantasies with the lady and her baby and the two Navajo girls, he became concerned that he may be crossing the line so he contacted the Veterans Administration (VA) for psychological assistance. He acquired additional reading material on the topic from the VA, which he said hurt his condition more than help. He stated his family life was not good and he was eventually awarded custody of his son, David Jr. He stated that while he and Glenda Ray were engaged in sexual intercourse, he would fantasize about Bondage and Discipline. He eventually disclosed this to Glenda Ray and she became angry. He stated he then "pulled the plug" on their relationship and relocated to Victoria, Texas. He stated he fantasized about Sadomasochism and Bondage and Discipline while he was engaged in sexual intercourse and was unable to separate fantasy and reality. He stated that since his incarceration in Tierra Amarilla, he is in a new type of cycle he has not experienced before. He is unable to fantasize and get a release due to a black cloud moving in causing him to lose his erection. He stated he quit drawing any type of stimulation for fear that State Police will raid his cell and seize his drawings. He is unable to create a scenario where he can get an erection.

David Parker Ray stated that when he was a child he was raised by his grandparents and his two aunts, Mildred and Eleanor. Mildred and Eleanor were abusive to him. Mildred would hold him by his ankles over the hog pens while the hogs were snorting underneath. Mildred would threaten to drop him in with the hogs which would "scare him to death." Eleanor would hold him underwater and on one occasion he passed out before she pulled him out. He was about three (3) or four (4) years old when this occurred and he further described himself as being quiet and shy. He feels these experiences with his aunts were a contributing factor to his affliction with dominance. He felt that as a child, he was always doing things wrong. He stayed away from people and was raised as a loner. He overcome a fear of water from his experiences with Eleanor and now loves water and is a certified diver. He stated he has never had a water fantasy. Prior to learning to swim, he stated an elderly lady fell into the water and he dove in and saved her. He does not trust anyone with in ten (10) feet of him while he is in the water.

He stated he concludes his fantasies with a happy ending such as the girl in his class that he fantasized about in Pine Shadows. He changes his fantasies to keep from getting bored and only has one fantasy at a time.

David Parker Ray stated Cindy Vigil was attractive and available. He described her attractiveness as being her body, her age, and her appearance. He stated he and Cindy Hendy traveled to Albuquerque on Friday and picked Cindy Vigil up on Saturday. An unidentified man came by selling narcotics but David Parker Ray decline his offer and asked the man about finding a girl for sexual activities. David Parker Ray cruised around for approximately three (3) hours until the man returned with Cindy Vigil. He approached her with a straight sex proposal and "things went from there." Cindy Hendy was in an exploratory stage when Cindy Vigil was picked up. Cindy Hendy was into voyeuristic activities and liked Bondage and Discipline with low grade limits. He stated that to a certain extent, all women like domination.

David Parker Ray refereed to an unidentified female who married a relative of his. This female was subsequently identified as Jonene and the relative was identified as Russell Parker. Jonene was frigid and Russell was abusive to her and beat her up. Jonene divorced him and she and David Parker Ray began dating. She displayed an interest in bondage after which he took her out in a motor home near the river for a weekend. He restrained her and engaged in oral sex with her and she had her first orgasm. She was about thirty (30) years old at that time. They later engaged in sexual intercourse. Jonene wanted to marry David Parker Ray, but he declined. She looked at all of his books involving Bondage and Discipline but he did not push the relationship. He stated he rarely cheated on Glenda Ray. Glenda Ray and Jonene experimented with lesbian activities with each other but it did not go anywhere. Prostitutes came into his life after his divorce with Glenda Ray. He was with Jonene for about fourteen (14) years. She would move out, then come back. They had an open relationship. In the early 1980's David Parker Ray moved out of fantasy and into reality by utilizing prostitutes and becoming friends with some of them. This concluded the first interview with David Parker Ray.

On August 22, 2001 the interviews with David Parker Ray continued at approximately 10:40 a.m. in the same location with the same individuals present as the previous day.

David Parker Ray stated there were a variety of fetishes and fantasies and he wanted to speak with a profiler to assist others. This interview was conducted by Ms. O'Tool. David Parker Ray stated he always felt more comfortable around females. He only had one (1) male friend but he could not feel free to talk with male friends like he does with females. He was only really close with his sister. He feels super shy. He learned to write long hand from his mother and would read detective books when he was young. He feels his fantasies were derived from the books he read. Paraphilic behavior is a learned behavior and he stated people in Bondage and Discipline are not sexual sadist but any of them could cross the line due to dissatisfied lives and dissatisfied sexual lives. He described criminal sexual sadism as when the law is broken. People involved with Bondage and Discipline and Sadomasochism are active and pushy, bordering on breaking the law, but not to the point of where people get hurt. He stated there is a struggle over the word, consensual. He believes the confusion with Bondage and Discipline and Sadomasochism is someone saying no. In the role play, it is common for the 'bottom' to say stop or use key words such as raspberry. Someone strapped down saying no or stop would seem to be a nonconsensual act to witnesses who may not know of key word phrases.

Several things interest David Parker Ray, but does not arouse him. He likes two females having sex. He stated that years ago he used binoculars to watch females through windows. He read about dildo's but did not know much about them. His collection of dildos began when he begin finding old bottles, which he would wash. He started a collection of phallus type items that he would place in a box that he kept in a hollow tree near where he was raised. His fetish was dormant when he went into the army and remained dormant until he got out. His oldest son was bonded to David Parker Ray's parents. He attended a trade school in Tulsa, Oklahoma and during that time David Parker Ray worked long hours and Glenda Ray was "hooking for extra money." In 1967 or 1968 Glenda Ray obtained "speckled bird" from one of her customers. After Glenda Ray gave him the "speckled bird," his fetish returned with vengeance and progressed rapidly. He experienced a lot of marital problems during this time.

While working in the Gallup area, David Parker Ray had a fantasy that he kept suppressed in his mind. It was an organized fantasy that scared him because he was fantasizing about crossing the line. He went to the VA for fear something was going to happen, but he did not get long term help, but for a time it was dormant and did not progress. He stated he is bothered by being an extremely passive person and crossing the line is extreme. He did not know how to deal with the idea of violence and fortunately it never got to that point at that time. He appeared to be evasive about answering Ms. O'Tool's question on how he dealt with it, by saying he dealt with it with extreme difficulty. He pretended to not know what Ms. O'Tool was looking for. He did not answer the question concerning how he dealt with crossing the line fantasy. Ms. O'Tool advised him that his purpose for the trailer was death to which he responded that she and Agent Schum think a like. Ms. O'Tool sat in close proximity to David Parker Ray and ask if it were possible for one to have conflicting feeling inside oneself. David Parker Ray sat with his legs crossed, hands clasped in his lap, slumped in his chair, leaning back toward the corner of the chair opposite of Ms. O'Tool. There were no physical barriers between them. David Parker Ray appeared nervous and uncomfortable and requested to take a break.

After the break, David Parker Ray stated the question of conflict of emotions had disturbed him for years. He has never come to grips with it. When the bad side inside him becomes dominant, he attempts to suppress it or control it. When suppression can not be done, then it is controlled by playing fantasies out with drawings, dolls, or creating objects until the feelings pass. When the control becomes boring, a new type of control has to be developed. It adds to the progression. He stated the control tactic backfired on him. The function worked well for a short period of time but he had a relapse and he would have to start over again. He stated it was frustrating because he would focused on his job and the urge would hit, then he would change his focus on resisting the fantasy, then lose focus on his job, then lose interest in his job, then quit his job. His urge has gotten more aggressive over the years.

David Parker Ray stated that during the Candy Fair times, he had trouble maintaining an erection. Candy Fair suggested he use Viagra. He stated he went to Dr. Wells and obtained it and "it really helped." He stated for over forty (40) years he has not had good performance in his sex life, but Viagra helped. When Ms. O'Tool asked about when he crossed the line, he reverted to the Cindy Vigil case. He stated he made a deal with Cindy Vigil to pay her forty dollars ($40.00) for straight sex. They discussed bondage and she decided she was not interested. He then wrestled her down and restrained her until they arrived at the rest area south of Bernando. He offered her more money and she accepted four hundred and fifty dollars ($450.00) for three (3) one (1) hour sessions over a three (3) day period. Cindy Vigil was suffering withdrawals from narcotics and resisted. He stated that at that time he crossed the line. He described Cindy Hendy as being the catalyst for that incident. Cindy Hendy has similar fantasies and wanted to experience it as a "top" or observer. David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy decided to hire a prostitute. He stated he was not into it, but wanted to show Cindy Hendy what it was about. He stated it turned into a nightmare and neither he nor Cindy Hendy enjoyed it. He stated that on Monday Cindy Vigil wanted to go home and he planned to take her home after he got off work. He only offered her three hundred ($300.00) dollars and Cindy Vigil was mad. Cindy Vigil received no severe whipping but they did use the cattle prod on her twice and Electro shock on her nipples, which did not cause extreme pain.

David Parker Ray stated he controls his urges to an extent that he is extremely cautious when he sets situations up, to avoid any problems. Some of his preparation included adding an extension welded to an eyebolt that is screwed into a beam to give more support. A dildo on a stand with spikes is a conversation piece only. When it is used, the spikes are removed prior to insertion. He takes precautions to minimize injuries, relating to his mind set at the time. His fantasy with Cindy Vigil to experience Bondage and Discipline activities were similar to his experience with Candy Fair. He did not take Cindy Vigil to the Toybox due to her attitude, which killed the fantasy and urge for himself and Cindy Hendy. Cindy Vigil's was diarrheic and she was constantly requesting heroin.

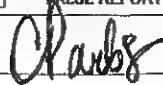

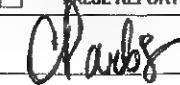

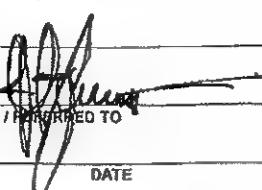

David Parker Ray stated an envelope, which contained eight hundred and forty dollars ($840.00) cash, was placed in an envelope under a drawer in the bathroom. He was going to give Cindy Vigil three hundred dollars ($300.00) from that and take her back to Albuquerque. He stated Cindy Vigil's mind set is different and exaggerated from what was actually done to her, causing misconceptions. Ms. O'Tool asked about Amitriptolene that was located in the Toybox and in his residence. David Parker Ray stated he only knew of it as sleeping pills and thought it might be used to live out a fantasy but he used it to help him sleep. He never used it for fantasies but used it in a fantasy to put someone to sleep. He bought the subscription for Amitriptolene from other unidentified individuals. He was fascinated with Phenobarbital, cotton tail, and other narcotics for fantasy drugs due to their hypnosis qualities. During his researched of these drugs, he learned they would be good for control. Kelly Hein was not given any narcotics. He declined to discuss her case due to being a possible witness in her case involving his daughter, Jesse Ray.

In the fantasy cycle David Parker Ray would masturbate two (2) or three (3) times daily. Using old fantasies was not successful and he needed to create new fantasies. He took a photograph of Cindy Vigil to memorize her but he is not much into photographs. He memorizes things in his mind instead of using tangible items. He stated sexual sadist will record and keep mementos. He said he is not consistent with studies of sexual sadists in that he does not keep records of his fantasies and he does not fantasize about girls, he fantasizes about fantasies because there is no reality in what his desires are. He stated there was no point in keeping records of it. David Parker Ray appeared to be evasive and untruthful, side stepping issues and had no sign of changing his behavior. He appeared defensive and in a bad mood.

After lunch, Ms. O'Tool requested that David Parker Ray get back on track with the truth. David Parker Ray asked that we consider him being a new convert in crossing the line and that is why he was caught. Ms. O'Tool told him by looking at the Toybox, people have died in there as a result of his violent sexual tendencies. He remained silent throughout her statements. He then requested to speak with Mr. McMillan after which David Parker Ray declined further interview. The interview sessions were terminated. David Parker Ray stated there were no bodies, no stash, and further stated that he may consider continuing with the interview at a later date. David Parker Ray was returned to

NARRATIVE

At approximately 2:45 p.m. I was contacted by T or C Police Officer Jim Starr who stated he had been at a District Court hearing involving Pamela MoQuin and Duane Hinckle. During her testimony, Pamela MoQuin advised the District Judge she had been beaten up by Duane Hinckle and she had taken a .357 Ruger Blackhawk handgun that belonged to Duane Hinckle who had reported it stolen. Officer Starr stated Duane Hinckle advised that Pamela MoQuin reportedly gave the hand gun to David Parker Ray. After reviewing the inventory form listing items seized as evidence from David Parker Ray's residence, it was discovered the hand gun was listed as having been in David Parker Ray's residence.

On April 3, 1999 I contacted Pamela MoQuin and requested she meet me at the State Police office for an additional interview concerning the David Parker Ray investigation. At approximately 10:20 a.m. FBI Agent Ida Acosta and myself met with Pamela MoQuin at the T or C State Police office who provided the following information.

INTERVIEW:

PAMELA MOQUIN

Pamela MoQuin stated Cindy Hendy had dated her former husband, Duane Hinckle, for a short time but was not sure of the date when Duane Hinckle and Cindy Hendy broke up, but further stated that in February 1999 she was advised by David Parker Ray, that he and Cindy Hendy were thinking about getting married. David Parker Ray stated Cindy Hendy had "quit drinking and was nice now."

Pamela MoQuin stated that during February 1999 she and her two (2) children had been invited to David Parker Ray's residence for dinner and after dinner had contacted a subject identified as Milford Brock. Milford Brock was approximately eighty (80) years old and she had offered to assist him while she stayed at his residence. Milford Brock told her that she could not come to his residence due to his girlfriend's jealousy. Pamela MoQuin stated she then requested to stay the night at David Parker Ray's residence and stayed there for approximately three (3) days. Pamela MoQuin and her children moved out due to a conflict between her and Cindy Hendy. Gilbert Delrio stated to her that she, (Pamela MoQuin) was going to be killed by David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy.

Pamela MoQuin stated that on one occasion she and her two children were on a sailboat with David Parker Ray when he advised her son that the way to make a body sink was to split it open and puncture the lungs. Pamela MoQuin stated a female subject identified as Lucille Benda advised her Jesse Ray had attempted to set up a date between her and David Parker Ray, but it apparently did not materialize. Pamela MoQuin stated she had no further information concerning this investigation. This concluded my interview with Pamela MoQuin.

At approximately 1:50 p.m. I met with Teresa Baca at the Damsite Restaurant where she was employed. Teresa Baca agreed to be interviewed and provided the following information concerning the David Parker Ray investigation.

INTERVIEW:

TERESA BACA

Teresa Baca had met Jesse Ray who was employed for her brother, Joe Baca, at his mechanic's shop. Jesse Ray had been employed with Joe Baca for approximately one (1) year. Teresa Baca met David Parker Ray through Jesse Ray in October 1996, and had visited David Parker Ray's residence three (3) or four (4) times over a period of about four (4) months. She did not feel comfortable at David Parker Ray's residence as they were very secretive about their "home life." David Parker Ray appeared "creepy looking" and she had developed an "intuition that lead to an odd feeling about Jesse Ray." Teresa Baca was unable to specify what lead to these feelings.

Teresa Baca stated that on one occasion in June 1998 she, her friend Rachel Ramirez, and Jesse Ray were at David Parker Ray's residence watching a movie during the afternoon. They all fell asleep until around 4:00 p.m., and since she did not feel comfortable, she and Rachel Ramirez left the residence about an hour later.

Teresa Baca, Rachel Ramirez, and several other unidentified female subjects accompanied David Parker Ray on a sailboat ride to the Kettletop area. She observed David Parker Ray appear to climb to the top of Kettletop with ease. Jesse Ray would be able to keep a visual contact on David Parker Ray as he climbed Kettletop and he later returned from a different direction.

Teresa Baca was acquainted with Marie Parker for approximately three (3) months before her disappearance. Marie Parker had dated a subject identified only as Mark who was employed at Raymond's Lounge. This subject was later identified as Mark Caruso. Teresa Baca stated she had no further information relating to this investigation. This concluded my interview with Teresa Baca.

On April 3, 1999 at approximately 3:30 p.m. I met with Roy Yancy for the purpose of a follow up investigation regarding information indicating he had been a victim of David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy. I reminded Roy Yancy of his Miranda warnings and that this interview would be to obtain information relating to him being a victim. Roy Yancy stated he understood the Miranda warnings and agreed to the interview and provided the following information.

INTERVIEW: ROY YANCY

Roy Yancy stated he had no knowledge of having been a victim of David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy. Roy Yancy stated that a few months prior, he had witnessed David Parker Ray "torture" a female identified as Candy Fair. This incident had occurred inside a white utility trailer referred to as the "Toy Box." Candy Fair had been a willing participant and David Parker Ray had tied her from the ceiling with chains and had whipped her. He had utilized clips and needles on her nipples. He also utilized a device that was connected to a "dildo" that moved back and forth. This session lasted less than an hour.

Roy Yancy stated that in 1997 or 1998 he had been looking at Penthouse magazines that were at David Parker Ray's residence when David Parker Ray related that he and his former wife would "have those bondage pleasures together." Roy Yancy stated he had never met David Parker Ray's former wife but stated that "she could be dead." David Parker Ray's daughter, Jesse Ray, was present when David Parker Ray commented that "they were into weird, kinky kind of sex." Roy Yancy stated he was shown photographs of David Parker Ray's former wife while she was tied up. This was Roy Yancy's first knowledge of David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray being involved in "S and M."

Roy Yancy stated he had allowed himself to be "tied up" and stated he had also "tied up" various female partners for sexual pleasure, but it had always been consensual and they never indulged in torture. Roy Yancy had experimented with a homo-sexual affair with his friend David Rivera a few months earlier, and the encounter with was consensual and there was no penetration and no force or bondage type of activities involved.

Roy Yancy stated he felt David Parker Ray wanted to get him involved with "kidnapping" women but he never spoke of it. Approximately a year ago, Jesse Ray advised him David Parker Ray had been "doing it for a lot of years." Roy Yancy stated at that time he did not believe her regarding David Parker Ray being "into kinky sex." Jesse Ray stated that David Parker Ray had kidnapped and tortured women. He stayed with David Parker Ray and during that time David Parker Ray showed him the "toy box" David Parker Ray stated it was used for an adrenaline rush and the items on the wall were used as scare tactics. David Parker Ray showed him "what the chair could do" and showed him some of the nipple clips. Roy Yancy stated he never saw anyone in the chair except Candy Fair. Roy Yancy and David Parker Ray traveled to Albuquerque in David Parker Ray's RV and would "cruise Central looking for hookers."

When Roy Yancy dated Cindy Hendy, she would get drunk and get rough but he was never bound up against his will. Roy Yancy was only aware of Cindy Hendy and Candy Fair being involved with "S and M" at David Parker Ray's residence. Roy Yancy, David Parker Ray, Cindy Hendy, and Candy Fair were on the lake on David Parker Ray's sailboat when Cindy Hendy tied Candy Fair to a rail. Candy Fair was naked at the time and Cindy Hendy began "sucking Candy's tits and sticking a dildo in her vagina or rectum," but he was unsure which.

During the course of this encounter, as Roy Yancy related, Cindy Hendy had been performing oral sex on Candy Fair while he and David Parker Ray used a dildo on Cindy Hendy. Candy Fair had been holding an "electric shocker" and began shocking herself. Cindy Hendy became angry because she had an orgasm too soon and began to get real rough and started throwing things after which David Parker Ray handcuffed her to the boat and began "paddling" her. Cindy Hendy wanted it done to her and that it was all consensual.

Roy Yancy stated if he had been a victim of David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy, he did not recall it but he could have been drugged during the incident and not remember it. Roy Yancy stated he had no further information concerning this investigation. This concluded my interview with Roy Yancy.

On April 4, 1999 at approximately 8:00 a.m. I arrived at the Command Post for a briefing session. At approximately 11:00 a.m. we arrived at the south side of Kettletop and surveyed the area. Several areas were located on the ground which appeared to have been disturbed. A three foot hole was dug in one of these areas where two maggots, a green leaf that appeared to be different from the shrubs of that immediate area, and a Junebug were recovered. Rebecca Smith's former employer from the Old West Saloon that was located in El Paso, Texas, identified as Johnny Preston, kept stalking her. Rebecca Smith had mentioned to David Parker Ray that she wished Johnny Preston would leave her alone. David Parker Ray advised her it would be really easy to "bring him out here, slit him up the middle, put rocks in him, wrap him in chicken wire, and throw him in the lake." Rebecca Smith had been involved with John Mayfield and several times Jesse Ray had advised her to bring John Mayfield to their residence to "dispose of him." Rebecca Smith did not know why Jesse Ray made those comments.

Rebecca Smith had met several hitchhikers that had been picked up by Jesse Ray and brought to their residence. Rebecca Smith stated these hitchhikers would be allowed to stay in David Parker Ray's motor home which would be parked at the beach, or would stay in his tent also located on the beach or at his residence. Jesse Ray had picked up hitchhikers since she and Rebecca Smith have known each other. Rebecca Smith stated she had no knowledge or involvement of any type of sexual activities relating to bondage or kidnapping incidents.

Roy Yancy stated that upon their arrival to David Parker Ray's residence, Jesse Ray and David Parker Ray forced Marie Parker into a white utility trailer referred to as the "toy box." Roy Yancy stated he went directly into David Parker Ray's residence and drank a beer and starred at the television and contemplated calling the police. Roy Yancy stated he did not call the police because he was afraid of David Parker Ray due to the fact he had a lot of guns and he was a park ranger.

Roy Yancy stated Marie Parker was in the "toy box" approximately three (3) days and he knew she was being tortured by David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray, but that he never entered the "toy box" during that time. Roy Yancy stated after the three (3) days, he was approached by David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray who advised him "they were done playing with her and it was time for her to go." Roy Yancy stated he felt David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray meant to kill Marie Parker but he had hoped they would let her go. Roy Yancy stated he, David Parker Ray, and Jesse Ray entered the "toy box" around midnight where he observed Marie Parker lying on a cot bound with cotton over her eyes as though she were asleep. Roy Yancy stated he was given a rope and was told that he knew what he had to do. Roy Yancy stated he placed the rope around Marie Parker's neck and began strangling her. Roy Yancy stated she seemed to die slow so he placed his knee on her chest to help it along.

Roy Yancy stated that after he strangled Marie Parker, her nude body was wrapped in a dark colored blanket, possibly green. Roy Yancy stated Marie Parker's body was placed in the back of the Dodge Ram Charger and transported to a remote area north of T or C. Roy Yancy stated David Parker Ray drove the vehicle and Jesse Ray occupied the right front seat while he was laying in the back next to Marie Parker's body. Roy Yancy stated he felt bad about what had occurred and was holding Marie Parker and crying because he still loved her.

Roy Yancy stated David Parker Ray stopped next to a deep, narrow ravine in a remote area and he assisted David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray in removing Marie Parker's body from the rear of the vehicle. Roy Yancy stated David Parker Ray and Jesse Ray rolled Marie Parker's body out of the blanket into the ravine after which David Parker Ray placed dirt on top of her. Roy Yancy stated he was advised by David Parker Ray not to tell anyone or he would join her. Roy Yancy stated he had no further information concerning this investigation. This concluded the interview with Roy Yancy.

After the interview with Roy Yancy, he agreed to take us to the location where Marie Parker's body had been disposed of. Roy Yancy directed us to the Monticello Canyon area on several dirt roads. Roy Yancy stated he was not sure of the exact location because he was laying down in the back of the vehicle the night David Parker Ray drove to the ravine.

Roy Yancy stated that when he got out of the vehicle, he noticed a wide turn-around area which could be used by service trucks. Roy Yancy stated he also noticed a high line pole near the ravine and the ravine was approximately twenty five (25) feet from the edge of the road. After an extensive search of the area, Roy Yancy was unable to locate the area where Marie Parker's body had been disposed of. Roy Yancy was returned to T or C and subsequently booked into the Sierra County Detention Facility. An air search of the Monticello Canyon area failed to reveal the location of where Marie Parker's body had been buried as described by Roy Yancy.

--------------------------------	--	---------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

On April 10, 1999 at approximately 7:00 a.m. I arrived at the Command Post for a briefing session regarding a search of Marie Parker's body. During the course of the day, the area north of T or C in the Monticello Canyon was searched. Roy Yancy agreed to accompany agents in the area in an attempt to locate where Marie Parker's body had been disposed of. Several hours of searching failed to reveal the location of Marie Parker's body.

For continuation of this report, refer to supplement number thirteen (13).

NARRATIVE

ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 02, 1997, AT APPROXIMATELY 1300 HRS., ELEPHANT BUTTE LAKE STATE PARK RANGERS REQUESTED ASSISTANCE WITH A CRIMINAL SEXUAL PENETRATION CASE. I MET WITH RANGER BRIAN TREMCO AT THE STATE PARK OFFICE. I WAS INFORMED THAT THE VICTIM WAS MARIE PARKER, DOB [REDACTED]-75, AND THAT THE SUSPECT WAS WESLEY A. HAWKS, DOB [REDACTED]-61. HAWKS'S MOTHER IS EMPLOYED AT ELEPHANT BUTTE STATE PARK. STATE PARK SUPERINTENDENT, ROLF HECHLER, REQUESTED THAT THE STATE POLICE HANDLE THE CASE TO PREVENT ANY CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

I CONDUCTED AN INTERVIEW WITH PARKER AT THE STATE PARK BOAT TRAINING CENTER. RANGER TREMCO WAS PRESENT DURING THE INTERVIEW. I FIRST ASKED PARKER TO TELL ME WHAT HAD HAPPENED LAST NIGHT.

PARKER SAID THAT SHE LIVES OUT AT THE LAKE BECAUSE SHE LOST HER APARTMENT. PARKER SAID SHE WAS CAMPED WHERE JESSE HAD A BUNCH OF HER FRIENDS FOR A FOURTH OF JULY PARTY. PARKER SAID SHE WAS IN HER TENT WITH HER FRIEND'S SON, MICAL, AND THEY WERE PLAYING CARDS. PARKER SAID THIS GUY, JOHN FROM ALBUQUERQUE, WAS THERE. JOHN WAS WAITING FOR WESLEY HAWKE, WHO WAS SUPPOSED TO GET HIM SOME DRUGS. PARKER SAID JOHN CAME INTO THE TENT AND TALKED TO THEM FOR A LITTLE BIT. PARKER SAID THAT WHEN WESLEY PULLED BACK UP, SHE TOLD JOHN TO GET OUT OF THE TENT, BECAUSE SHE DID NOT WANT HIS STUFF IN THERE. PARKER SAID THAT AFTER JOHN LEFT SHE FELL ASLEEP.

PARKER STATED THAT SHE WOKE UP TO FIND WESLEY HAWKE IN THE TENT. SHE SAID, "HE WAS SUCKING ON MY TIT AND HE HAD MY BATHING SUITE BOTTOM HALF WAY DOWN. AND HIS FINGERS WERE UP INSIDE OF ME." PARKER TURNED AROUND AND ASKED, "WHAT THE FUCK HE THOUGHT HE WAS DOING?" AND "GET THE FUCK OUT OF MY TENT!" PARKER SAID SHE WALKED DOWN TO THE WATER, BECAUSE SOME OF HER FRIENDS WERE ON A BOAT. PARKER SAID THAT SHE ASKED HER FRIENDS TO GET RID OF THIS GUY. SHE SAID SHE TOLD THEM THAT HE HAD TRIED TO FONDLE HER WHILE SHE WAS SLEEPING. PARKER SAID SHE DD NOT KNOW IF THEY HEARD HER OR THOUGHT THAT SHE WAS JOKING, BECAUSE THEY DID NOT TAKE ANY ACTION.

AFTER THAT, PARKER SAID SHE WENT BACK UP TO THE TENT AND LAID DOWN. PARKER SAID JOHN AND BRIAN, WHO HAD BEEN THERE WITH WESLEY, CAME UP TO THE FIRE AND WERE TALKING TO WESLEY. PARKER SAID SHE HEARD WESLEY JOKING ABOUT HOW HE THOUGHT HE COULD JUST GET A SQUEEZE. PARKER SAID SHE STARTED YELLING AT THEM ABOUT HOW THEY WERE DOGS, AND WENT BACK DOWN TO THE WATER TO YELL TO HER FRIEND, BECKY. PARKER ASKED BECKY TO TELL DARRYL TO COME TELL THIS GUY TO LEAVE.

BECKY TOLD PARKER THAT SHE DID NOT WANT ANYONE TO GET HURT. PARKER SAID BECKY TOLD HER TO GO TO JESSE'S HOUSE AND GET HER DAD. PARKER SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW WHERE JESSE LIVES, SO SHE WENT BACK UP TO THE TENT AND WOKE HER LITTLE BROTHER UP.

PARKER SAID SHE TOLD WESLEY, "THIS ISN'T JUST A CAMP, THIS IS MY FUCKING HOME AND YOU HAD NO RIGHT TOUCHING ME. I WANT YOU TO LEAVE. NOW." PARKER SAID THAT WESLEY ASKED IF HE SAID HE WAS SORRY, WOULD SHE LET HIM STAY. WOULD SHE LET HIM FINISH COOKING HIS CHICKEN. PARKER ANSWERED, "FUCK THE CHICKEN! JUST LEAVE." WESLEY ASKED, "WELL, IF I GIVE YOU A LINE?" PARKER SAID SHE TOLD WESLEY SHE DID NOT "WANT THAT SHIT," SHE JUST WANTED HIM TO LEAVE.

PARKER SAID BRIAN AND JOHN TOLD WESLEY, "COME ON, LETS JUST GO." BRIAN PICKED UP THE CHICKEN. PARKER WENT TO SIT BY HER BROTHER ON THE COUCH. PARKER SAID THAT WESLEY STARTED YELLING. HE SAID FOR JESSE NOT TO CALL HIM, THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHO SHE WAS WHEN SHE WAS AROUND PARKER. PARKER SAID WESLEY TOLD HER, "YOU'RE A FUCKING LITTLE BITCH. THANKS FOR THE SQUEEZE." THEN GOT IN HIS TRUCK AND LEFT.

PARKER SAID SHE WENT BACK INTO THE TENT AND LAID DOWN, BUT COULD NOT SLEEP, SO SHE PUT ON SOME DRY CLOTHES. PARKER GOT INTO HER CAR AND WENT INTO TOWN. SHE SAID SHE WENT TO FOUR OR FIVE DIFFERENT FRIEND'S HOUSES, BUT NO ONE WAS AWAKE, SO SHE WENT TO SLEEP IN HER CAR.

I ASKED WHO WAS AT THE CAMP THAT NIGHT. HAWKE WAS NOT SURE WHO WAS OUT THERE. HE SAID SOME PEOPLE WERE ON THE SAILBOAT. HAWKE SAID IT WAS JUST HIM JOHN AND MARIE AROUND THE FIRE WHEN HE WAS THERE. THEN MARIE CRASHED IN THE TENT.

I ASKED HAWKE IF HE WAS SEXUALLY ACTIVE. HE SAID THAT HE WAS.

I EXPLAINED TO HAWKE AND HIS MOTHER THAT I WOULD GET A HOLD OF JOHN AND GET HIS SIDE OF THE STORY. THEN I WOULD PUT EVERYTHING IN A REPORT AND THE REPORT WOULD GO TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE AND THEY WOULD DECIDE IF THERE WAS ENOUGH EVIDENCE TO FILE CHARGES.

ON JULY 07, 1997, I CALLED THE PHONE NUMBER HAWKE HAD GIVEN ME FOR JOHN. I LEFT A MESSAGE AND PHONE NUMBER FOR JOHN.

ON JULY 15, 1997, I CALLED JOHN JOHNSON'S PHONE NUMBER AGAIN. I LEFT ANOTHER MESSAGE.

1945 HRS., DAVID ISAACS RETURNED MY CALL. HE HAS KNOWN MARIE PARKER SINCE 1990. (HE) LAST SAW PARKER IN 1992 AT THE NEW MEXICO STATE FAIR IN ALBUQUERQUE. HE SAID PARKER WAS GETTING READY TO GO ON THE ROAD WITH THE MURPHY BROTHERS. THE MURPHY BROTHERS ARE CONCESSIONAIRES AT THE STATE FAIR. ISAACS SAID HE HAD DATED PARKER FOR A SHORT TIME AFTER SHE HAD BROKE UP WITH HIS FRIEND, RUDY MONTOYA. ISAACS GAVE ME MONTOYA'S PHONE NUMBER, 265-6560, PAGER 837-4847. I ASKED ISAACS ABOUT PARKER'S TATTOO. ISAACS COULD NOT REMEMBER WHAT IT WAS, BUT SAID MONTOYA WOULD PROBABLY KNOW.

I TRIED MONTOYA'S NUMBER. THERE WAS NO ANSWER. I TRIED THE PAGER NUMBER, AND LEFT MY NUMBER.

ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1997, SGT. RICHARDSON CONTACTED ME AND STATED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED A TAPE FROM OFFICER PRISCILLA A TORREZ OF THE TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES POLICE DEPARTMENT. THE TAPE HAD TWO MESSAGES FROM MARIE PARKER TO HER MOTHER KATE PARKER. OFFICER TORREZ HAD RECEIVED THE TAPE FROM KATE PARKER ON THIS DATE.

SGT. RICHARDSON AND I LISTENED TO THE TAPE TOGETHER, AND MADE A LIST OF THINGS TO FOLLOW UP ON.

IN THE FIRST MESSAGE, MARIE TELLS HER MOTHER THAT SHE NEEDS TO TALK TO HER ABOUT SOMETHING VERY IMPORTANT. MARIE SAYS SHE IS GOING TO TELL HER MOTHER SOMETHING THAT SHE IS PROBABLY NOT GOING TO LIKE. MARIE SOUNDS SOMEWHAT UPSET.

MARIE CALLED A SECOND TIME. SHE WAS CRYING. MARIE SAID SHE WANTED TO TELL HER OTHER GOODBYE AND THAT AFTER TODAY, NO ONE WOULD BE SEEING HER ANYMORE. SHE SAID, "I LOVE YOU AND I'M SORRY FOR HURTING YOU". MARIE SAID, "I'M SORRY FOR WHAT I'M GOING TO DO, BUT I CAN'T BE HURT ANYMORE." MARIE THANKS HER MOTHER FOR BEING THERE FOR HER, AND SAYS GOODBYE. THIS MESSAGE SOUNDS LIKE MARIE MAY HAVE BEEN PLANNING TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

THERE IS A THIRD MESSAGE ON THE TAPE FROM ANDY AT HUMAN SERVICES IN LOS LUNAS. ANDY IS CALLING FOR KATE PARKER, SHE SAID IT WAS URGENT THAT KATE PARKER CALL BACK. ANDY STATED THAT SHE WAS CALLING ON TUESDAY AT 12:15, AND LEFT A PHONE NUMBER OF 865-4634.

SGT. RICHARDSON CONTACTED KATE PARKER AND ASKED HER TO COME INTO THE OFFICE FOR AN INTERVIEW.

AT 1509 HRS., I CALLED HUMAN SERVICES AT 865-4634. I ASKED FOR ANDY. I WAS TOLD THERE WAS NO ANDY THERE, BUT THERE WERE TWO AMY'S. I EXPLAINED WHO I WAS AND THAT I WAS INVESTIGATING A MISSING PERSON. I SAID SOMEONE FROM THIS NUMBER HAD CALLED KATE PARKER. THE AMY THAT WAS THERE SAID SHE DID NOT HAVE A CASE FILE FOR THE PARKER'S. I WAS TOLD THE OTHER AMY WOULD NOT BE BACK TILL TOMORROW.

AT 1530 HRS., KATE PARKER CAME INTO THE STATE POLICE OFFICE. I ASKED KATE PARKER TO EXPLAIN HOW SHE FOUND THE TAPE WITH THE MESSAGES FROM MARIE. KATE SAID THE ANSWERING MACHINE HAD BEEN PACKED UP BECAUSE VICKY WAS STAYING AT HER HOUSE WHILE SHE WAS OUT ON THE ROAD. WHEN KATE RETURNED HOME SHE WAS GETTING THE MACHINE READY TO USE AGAIN. KATE SAID SHE WAS GOING TO RECORD A NEW MESSAGE WHEN SHE NOTICED THAT THE TAPE WAS ON THE "B" SIDE. WHEN KATE LISTENED TO THE "A" SIDE, SHE HEARD THE MESSAGES FROM MARIE.

KATE BELIEVES THAT THE CALLS WERE MADE ON THE 4TH OR 5TH OF JULY, BECAUSE IT SOUNDS LIKE MARIE EXPECTED HER TO BE AT HOME. KATE SAID SHE LEFT TO GO ON THE ROAD ON JULY 6TH. MARIE KNEW THAT HER MOTHER WAS LEAVING TOWN TO GO ON THE ROAD.

DURING A PREVIOUS INTERVIEW, KATE SAID MARIE HAD THREATENED TO COMMIT SUICIDE WHEN SHE WAS YOUNGER. I ASKED IF MARIE SAID HOW OR WHERE SHE MIGHT DO IT. KATE SAID MARIE DID NOT SAY HOW OR WHERE SHE WOULD DO IT. KATE SAID SHE THOUGHT MARIE MIGHT GO TO LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.

I ASKED ABOUT MARIE'S MAIL. KATE SAID SHE HAD NOT PICKED IT UP IN A WHILE. SHE SAID MARIE HAD JC PENNEY'S AND MONTGOMERY WARD'S CREDIT CARDS. I ASKED ABOUT A CHECKING ACCOUNT HERE IN TOWN. KATE SAID SHE THOUGHT THERE HAD BEEN SOMETHING IN THE MAIL FROM FIRST SAVING BANK. KATE HAS TO BE IN LOS LUNAS ON WEDNESDAY REFERENCE CUSTODY OF MARIE'S GIRLS. SHE SAID SHE WOULD GET MARIE'S MAIL WHEN SHE RETURNS.

KATE COULD NOT REMEMBER WHAT THE TATTOO WAS. SHE SAID TIM BRIGGS WOULD KNOW. KATE SAID BEN ARCHER WOULD HAVE DENTAL RECORDS FOR MARIE. MARIE'S DOCTOR IS DR. GONZALES.

KATE SAID MARIE HAS HELPED HER PACK BEFORE AND THEY ALWAYS DID IT SYSTEMATICALLY AND CAREFULLY. KATE SAID SHE FOUND THE GIRL'S GOOD DRESSES IN WITH KITCHEN STUFF, AS AN EXAMPLE.

KATE GAVE ME SOME PAPERS THAT SHE FOUND IN A BOX. THERE WERE FIVE YELLOW RECEIPTS DATED IN THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER. FOUR OF THESE WERE DATED WITH THE YEAR 1992. THE NAME ON THE RECEIPTS WAS ANGEL MORRISON, AN ALIAS USED BY MARIE. THE ADDRESS WRITTEN ON THEM IS "ONE BALL CENTER". THE RECEIPTS HAVE VARYING DOLLAR AMOUNTS AND DIFFERENT TIMES OF DAY WRITTEN ON THEM. THE RECEIPTS HAVE NO BUSINESS OR PHONE NUMBER PRINTED ON THEM.

COPY OF THE TRANSCRIBED STATEMENT OF ROY YANCY'S CONFESSION TO THE MURDER OF MARIE PARKER.

THE FOLLOWING INTERVIEW WAS CONDUCTED BY SERGEANT K. C. ROGERS AND AGENT GARY BROTHAN, WITH ROY YANCY ON APRIL 9, 1999:

ROGERS: Gary, what's your last name?

BROTAN: Brothman. B-r-o-t-a-n.

ROGERS: Brothman. I'm sorry, I forgot. B-r-o-what?

BROTAN: T-a-n.

ROGERS: T-a-n. Sergeant K. C. Rogers, New Mexico State Police Criminal Investigations Section. The date is April the ninth, 1999. The time is approximately, uh, 2:20. Uh, present during this interview is, uh, uh, Gary Brothman from the F.B.I., uh, Agent Norman Rhoades from the New Mexico State Police, and Roy Yancy. How do you spell your last name?

YANCY: Y-a-n-c-y.

ROGERS: Y-a-n-c-?

YANCY: Y.

ROGERS: C-y? Okay. Uh, when Norman, uh, gave you a ride over here today, he, uh, I guess, read his, read you your rights. Right?

YANCY: They have been read to me, yes.

ROGERS: Okay, so you, you know what your rights are and all that stuff. Uh, earlier when we came in here and, and approached you about talking to us, uh, told you what we wanted to talk to you about, you said you wanted a lawyer. Is that right?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Have you decided that you would be willing to talk to us without an attorney?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, anybody coerce you or threaten you or anything like that to do that?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Now what I mean by threaten you, we didn't like say we were going to beat you up..

YANCY: Yeah..

ROGERS: ..or any of that..

YANCY: ..I got you..

ROGERS: ..kind of stuff.

BROTAN: Yeah.

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Okay. Uh, what we want to talk to you about is, uh, uh, something that, uh, that you did, uh, to a woman, and I'm not going to get into particulars. I'm gonna let you get into particulars about who it was and where it was and when it was, okay? But, uh, uh, you already understand from what we've told you that we know an awful lot about this. And, uh, we're gonna give you your chance here to tell your side of the story and, uh, tell us how you ended up in that position. Okay? So, why don't you start with, uh, how this, who was it that you, that you had in David's house? Who was it that you all killed?

YANCY: Marie Parker.

ROGERS: Okay, how did that take place? How did you, how did you come up with the idea to, to kill Marie?

YANCY: Uh, it was David Ray Parker's idea.

ROGERS: Well, tell me about it.

YANCY: Uh, uh, from what I understand is that he's had many years of torturing, kidnapping and torturing and killing women.

ROGERS: Okay, how do you understand that? What do you mean?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: Uh, he would, he would, he had told me, somewhat as bragging about it. David Parker had bragged about doing that.

ROGERS: About killing women also?

YANCY: Ra, uh, kidnapping, raping and so on.

ROGERS: And, uh, and killing? Okay. Uh, how long does he say he's been doing that?

YANCY: I can't really recall on the number.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: How long have you known him?

YANCY: I've only known him for, I'm really bad with times and dates. I'd say about five years maybe.

ROGERS: About five years?

YANCY: Yeah.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: It's been a while.

BROTAN: How many women did he say he killed?

YANCY: I don't think he ever gave a number.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Well, now, what's your relationship with Marie Parker? Who was she to you?

YANCY: Uh, she was an ex-girlfriend.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And a friend.

ROGERS: And a friend to you?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

ROGERS: Okay. Where was Marie living?

YANCY: At that time I believe she was saying that she was living on the beach.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: With her kids.

ROGERS: How did it come about that you all decided that that was what was gonna happen?

YANCY: That she was going to die? Or..

ROGERS: Uh..

YANCY: ..that she was living on the beach?

ROGERS: No. That she was going to die or that, that you all were going to take her, whether it was to kill her or what, but, who de, who made that decision?

YANCY: I believe either David or Glenda Ray.

ROGERS: Okay. Tell us about how it took place that you guys did this. Tell, how di, what happened? Just tell us in your words what happened and we'll ask you questions on top of that.

BROTAN: Start at the beginning of that day.

YANCY: Okay. Uhm, David and Glenda were conversing, which I didn't really catch any of it, cause I was, uh, steadily drinking (laughs) and, uh..

ROGERS: Where were you?

YANCY: At David's house.

ROGERS: At David's house?

YANCY: Right. And my father was, my father, my real father, was with us, also, but he..

ROGERS: What's his name?

YANCY: ..but he didn't know anything about it. Martin Yancy.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

ROGERS: Martin Yancy?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Did he live here?

YANCY: No, Sir, he was, he's a paraplegic and he travels around. He lives pretty much in VA hospitals.

ROGERS: Okay. That's fine.

YANCY: And, uh, later that evening, I guess, Marie and Glenda had made a deal to get some crank or something for Marie. And I wasn't, I thought that's what we were gonna do, but we went up to the top of a mountain, or a hill or whatever, where a tower was, and, uh, that's where Jessie turned on her and had a gun and put handcuffs on her.

ROGERS: Okay, tell us about the, 'bout how you picked her up and where you picked her up, that kind of stuff.

YANCY: I believe, I believe we picked her up at the Blue Water Saloon.

ROGERS: Okay, did you go get her, was she in the parking lot? How did that work?

YANCY: Jess went and got her.

ROGERS: Jessie went and got her?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: And what did she tell her? Do you know?

YANCY: I guess, no, I don't really know what they were talking about.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: From what I understood, there was supposed to be a drug deal and that, uh, the only way that Jessie could get the drugs from this other person was to meet 'em up on the hill.

ROGERS: Okay.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: And, uh, Marie took full trust into it, into that, and went up there with her.

ROGERS: Okay, now tell me ha, what happened at the parking lot. When, were you in the, the, what vehicle were you in?

YANCY: Okay. I believe in the Ram.

ROGERS: In the Ram?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay, and, and what happened in the parking lot there?

YANCY: She just came and got in the truck.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, anybody say anything to her? Anything, uh..

YANCY: I don't recall.

ROGERS: Don't recall?

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: I, I was, I had a healthy buzz going.

ROGERS: You were pretty drunk then?

YANCY: Yes, Sir, I was..

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: ..drinking all day.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: Was Marie's car there?

YANCY: I believe so.

ROGERS: So, uh, uh, you all get in the, the Ram and what happens? Ya'll just take off? Or what happened?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: All right, we go up to the top of the hill, which is out by the highway, and, uh, Jessie got down from the truck and said that "he's not here yet," that "we gotta wait for a little bit," came around the other side, I think.

ROGERS: Where was she sitting..

YANCY: Kind of blurry, you know, I, I don't remember..

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: ..about the details on that.

ROGERS: Well, where was she sittin' and where, tell me where everybody was sitting in the, in the car.

YANCY: I was sitting in the middle and Marie was sitting right next to me.

ROGERS: And where was, was David and where was, uh..

YANCY: David was..

ROGERS: ..Jessie?

YANCY: ..at his house.

ROGERS: Oh, so David wasn't with you at that time?

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. But..

YANCY: He was at the house waiting for Jess.

ROGERS: So it was Jessie driving..

YANCY: Me in the middle..

ROGERS: ..you in the middle..

YANCY: ..and then Marie.

ROGERS: ..and Marie on the passenger side?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I think that's how it was, or me and Marie were vice versa or something like that.

ROGERS: So maybe Marie was in the middle?

YANCY: Or..yeah.

ROGERS: Okay, but Jessie was doing the driving?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Were you just too drunk to drive or..

YANCY: (Laughing) I was pretty drunk, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. So, uh, you go up to the top of the hill and, can you show us this hill? Can you tell us where it is?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay, so you remember enough about it to know where that hill is?

YANCY: Well, I know this place pretty good.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: (Laughs)

ROGERS: And it, you say it's a hill, got a tower on it?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Or is there a lot of towers on the hills out here, or is it one that..

YANCY: I think there's two here in this town have it, towers on them.

ROGERS: Okay, but you'll be able to tell us which one it is?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Cause we're gonna wanna do that. We're gonna wanna know where that is.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: Sure.

ROGERS: Uh, so, uh, you all are sittin up on the hill and what happens?

YANCY: Jessie, uh, pulls a gun on her and, and, uh, puts her in handcuffs and puts her in the back.

ROGERS: Okay, now you said earlier, something about Jessie getting out. Did she get out of the car or..

YANCY: Uh, yeah, she came around and pulled a gun on her and held the gun to her and put handcuffs on her.

BROTAN: What kind of gun?

YANCY: I don't know. (Laughs)

BROTAN: Was it a pistol?

YANCY: Yeah, it was a pistol. Or something..

BROTAN: Or semi-automatic? Do you know the difference?

YANCY: No, it, it was a revolver, I believe.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: You remember what it looked like? Was it silver or, uh, you know, that blue ha, was it a black color or a, a, you don't remember?

YANCY: I, no, cause I was..

ROGERS: Cause you're shaking your head. I was just wondering if you..

YANCY: I'm sorry. I..

ROGERS: That's okay.

YANCY: I, I don't remember what color it was or anything like that.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

BROTAN: Did it have a long barrel or short barrel?

YANCY: Uh, eee, no, four to five inches, I guess, I don't know.

ROGERS: So the whole thing was four or five inches? Was it as big as your hand or was the barrel way out here like this? Do you remember?

YANCY: It was, it was, you could put it in your pocket.

ROGERS: Oh, okay, so it was a fairly small gun then? Then it was, was a revolver?

YANCY: Yes, Sir, I believe it was a revolver.

ROGERS: Okay. So, so she handcuffs her and what happens to, what does she do then?

YANCY: Puts her, puts her in the back and Jessie commanded me to go back there and hold her down.

ROGERS: And she told you to go back there and hold her down?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: Okay. And what did you do?

YANCY: I got back there and held her down and tried to keep her quiet.

ROGERS: What was Marie doing?

YANCY: Uh, she, she just pretty still. She didn't move or anything or, or..

ROGERS: Was she pretty scared you figure or..

YANCY: I would think she was, yeah. I was, too. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Okay. Well I can understand both of you..

YANCY: Absolutely.

ROGERS: ..being afraid, man. So, uh, uh, you went back there and, did you keep your hand over her mouth, or..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I didn't have to.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: She was real, she was real laid back.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: She..

ROGERS: Didn't want her to..

YANCY: ..she was doing everything..

ROGERS: ..didn't wanna do anything wrong or..

YANCY: Right. She was doing everything Glenda told her and I was, too.

ROGERS: What was Glenda doing?

YANCY: And she was driving.

BROTAN: What did Glenda say?

YANCY: Uh, I can't really remember.

BROTAN: When she came over to the door..

YANCY: Something, sit down and shut up and don't move, or something like that. And then she told me..

BROTAN: Did she say what she was gonna do with them? Do with her?

YANCY: No. She didn't say that.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: On the trip.

ROGERS: None of that, you shut up or I'll kill you, stuff?
None of that, just, just..

YANCY: Yeah, I believe she said, shut up, or I'll kill you.

ROGERS: Oh, did she say that?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: Did she tell her that..

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: ..she'd kill her..

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: ..or..

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. And were you afraid that she was going to?

YANCY: Well, I was hoping not. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: (Inaudible) .

ROGERS: Well, that gives us an idea of how Marie felt, if you were afraid, then Marie was probably pretty afraid, too.

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: So what happened? Where did ya'll go?

YANCY: We went back to the trailer and David and Jessie moved her into the Toy Box.

ROGERS: Back to, to what trailer?

YANCY: Into, uh, it's called, up to where David..

ROGERS: To David's house?

YANCY: ..where he lived.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: Yes. And..

ROGERS: When was this? What, uh, what time of year, what year was it?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: It was, it had to have been in July, cause my sister's birthday was right around that time.

ROGERS: Of what year?

YANCY: I'm, I'm going to have to say last year, or the year before.

ROGERS: You don't remember at all..

BROTAN: (Inaudible) ..

ROGERS: ..whether it was last year or the year before?

YANCY: No, Sir. I'm thinking it was the year before.

ROGERS: Okay. Now, you get to the trailer and what happened?

YANCY: Uh, I, I went back inside the, to the trailer and from what I understand Jessie and her dad took her into the Toy Box.

ROGERS: Uh-huh.

BROTAN: Where did you park? Where did you park..

YANCY: And..

BROTAN: ..where did you park when you came in?

YANCY: In the front. In the front of the, in the front of the trailer?

ROGERS: In the very front?

YANCY: Well, up by the, well, yeah, pretty much in the si, well, right by the side of it, before you get into the carport.

ROGERS: Okay. And, how'd you get her out of the, out of the truck?

YANCY: Uh, I think David pulled her down and she walked. Her and..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: So, David came out. See, these are the kind of questions we're going to ask to try to get a clearer picture here.

YANCY: Okay. Well, I'm trying to get a clear picture.

ROGERS: Sure. But this is going to help us if we ask this. It gives you a lot clearer picture. They, she pulls up near the carport, I guess?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: That's the one right in front of the trailer. Right?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: And, uh, David comes outside?

YANCY: He comes on over, where you stand in front of the trailer is where the front door is.

BROTAN: Yeah.

ROGERS: Right.

BROTAN: Okay, that's the carport that covers it.

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: Right.

BROTAN: Now, did you back in or did you pull in?

YANCY: I think she just pulled in.

ROGERS: Okay. What time was it? Was it daylight, dark?

YANCY: It was late at night.

ROGERS: Late?

YANCY: I believe, yeah.

ROGERS: Like midnight or around there?

YANCY: It, it'd have to have been somewhere in that area, cause the bar was still open.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: So it might have been earlier than midnight.

ROGERS: Okay. So that takes place, you're, uh, you pull up, David comes outside. How does he get her out?

YANCY: I'm not really sure. I got into the house. I went into the house.

ROGERS: You just wanted to get away from her or what?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: So you went inside and David stayed out with her?

YANCY: I was contemplating calling the police actually.

ROGERS: You were?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Well that's good. That's good that you were. Uh, do you remember if he opened up the back or if he got her out through one of the, the..

YANCY: I think they got her out from the back.

ROGERS: From the back. And you say they, so it must have been..

YANCY: Glenda and..

ROGERS: ..Jessie..

YANCY: ..Jessie. Or Glenda and, and her dad.

ROGERS: So you call her Glenda?

YANCY: Well, that's..uh..

ROGERS: That's how you..

YANCY: ..her name.

ROGERS: Right.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: I call her Jessie.

ROGERS: You call her Jessie. Okay.

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Well, we'll just call her Jessie since that, I call her Jessie, too, so..

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: Uh, so while you're in the house, what, what did they do?

YANCY: Uh, from what I understand they took her to the Toy Box.

ROGERS: They didn't take her inside the house where you were?

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. What were you doing, this, while you're in there?

YANCY: Uhhh, I got a beer. (Laughs) First thing I got a beer and I sat down at the coffee table and I was staring at the T.V. and I was thinking about what was going on, if I should call. But I was, I was still afraid.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: I was still afraid, because they have a lot of guns and he's a park ranger and he's got guns and everything and I wasn't really sure what to do, plus my father was, was there..

ROGERS: Oh, your father was in the house also?

YANCY: I, I think he, I think he was in the house.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: Did he, he didn't know..

YANCY: (Inaudible)..

BROTAN: ..what was going on or he did..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: No. Huh-uh. He had no idea.

ROGERS: So..

YANCY: There was no way he could have.

ROGERS: What do you mean, there was no way he could have?

YANCY: They kept it pretty much secluded from every, everybody and everything.

ROGERS: Oh, it was all pretty hush-hush then?

YANCY: Yeah, I mean, after, after they took her in the Toy Box, I didn't see her after that.

ROGERS: Okay..

YANCY: Till, till the night I was told to go in there.

ROGERS: Okay, well tell us what, you, they take her to the Toy Box. Tell me what you know about the Toy Box.

YANCY: Uh, there's a lot of torture devices and what have you in there. Uh, a chair that you can be tied down and, and tortured by. A lot of scare, scare tactics like, uh, cloaks and books and, and hypodermic needles and things like that.

ROGERS: Just stuff he uses to scare 'em?

YANCY: Right. And, and, uh, video cameras.

ROGERS: Okay. You ever, uh, been in there yourself with David, uh, while they tortured somebody?

YANCY: I, uh, I was only in there when he was with Candy.

ROGERS: When he was with Candy.

YANCY: And watched them torture...

ROGERS: Candy? Okay.

YANCY: To watch him torture somebody. But that was, that was, uh, they were both..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: It was okay with Candy?

YANCY: Consenting, yes.

ROGERS: Yeah. Yeah, I, and, and don't, you don't need to worry about stretching for words or anything because we, we understand that Candy was, Candy was a player, too.

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: She liked it. So, okay, you go in the house and this is that first night. Uh, did you end up just, uh, hanging out or what were you doing?

YANCY: Well, I was, I was hanging, I was hanging out with my dad, and, uh, visiting with friends and stuff, because we were just stopping there on our way to go off, me and my father, to go look for like a seascape place or, or what have you.

ROGERS: A what place?

YANCY: A seascape, where he could paint and sell paintings..

ROGERS: Oh, okay.

YANCY: and the, cause he's a real excellent artist.

ROGERS: Good.

YANCY: He can't do anything else, cause he's in a wheelchair.

ROGERS: So you were just gonna go out and travel around and try to find a place where he could sell his art?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. So, uh, while you're there, uh, what's David and, and Glenda, or Jessie doing?

YANCY: Uh, well me and Glenda and my dad and my friends were hanging out on the beach and what have you.

ROGERS: Who are your friends?

YANCY: Whoooo, Pablo Nuanez..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

ROGERS: Pablo what?

YANCY: Nuanez.

ROGERS: Nuanez?

YANCY: And, uh, I can't recall the other gentlemen's names, but I know 'em.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: I know who they are. But I don't usually call them by their names.

ROGERS: So, where was David during this time?

YANCY: He would go back and forth to work.

ROGERS: Back and forth to work?

YANCY: Yes, Sir. He was, he was still going to work.

ROGERS: And where was Marie?

YANCY: In the Toy Box, I believe.

ROGERS: Okay, so to your knowledge, she just stayed in the Toy Box?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: How long was she in the Toy Box?

YANCY: I, shit, I don't know.

ROGERS: Okay, well, I mean like days or..

YANCY: Yeah, some, a few days.

ROGERS: A few days?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, did you ever see her in the Toy Box?

YANCY: I, uh, just when, whenever they made me go in there and, and finish her off.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Okay, now, tell me what happened on that.

YANCY: Well, I had mixed feelings on that, because I didn't like to s, didn't like to, to, well, I thought about it the whole time. I didn't like to know that she was in there getting tortured or what have you. And, uh, I was told to go in there and, and, cause he was done playing with her, I guess, was what they were telling me.

ROGERS: When you say they, who's they again?

YANCY: Uh, Jessie and, and David.

ROGERS: They were saying that, that David was done?

YANCY: Yeah, he was done playing with her and that it was time for her to go or what have you. And I wasn't quite sure what they were meaning by that.

BROTAN: Did you ask 'em?

YANCY: No. No, I didn't. I, uh, we went in, we went in there and she was laying down on a, on a cot, tied to a cot. And she had cotton over her eyes and it looked like she was sleeping. And, uh, oh, boy, it's hard to recall this.

ROGERS: It's okay. Just take your time and think about it.

YANCY: I know they ended up giving me a rope and telling me to, to strangle her. And I remember doing that and she wasn't dying fast enough. I mean I, it was, uh, real painful. I, or, had, I had mixed feelings on it because I wanted her to live, but I didn't want her to stay going through that torture. Oh, and I was, when I was pulling the rope I remember putting my knee or my hand or something on her chest to try to, to help it along so she wouldn't, you know, suffer..

ROGERS: Sure.

YANCY: ..too much more.

BROTAN: Understand that.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: And, uh, and then after that they put her in the truck and, and I was in the back. And, uh, I didn't see where we were going. And, uh, it, we were driving it seemed for a long time. And when we got done we got out of the truck and there was this huge culvert and they took her out and they threw her in the culvert and they kicked, they were pushing dirt on top of her.

ROGERS: Okay, this huge culvert, do you know where it is?

YANCY: I, I don't know, really, where to turn off or what have you, cause like I say I was laying down in the back.

ROGERS: Right, but, I mean, you've known this country a long time. This is part of, you know, your part of the world.

YANCY: Not that part the area. Not that part of the area.

ROGERS: Okay, your..

YANCY: They went north on the highway.

ROGERS: They went north? And you pointed out north, right? So..

YANCY: I, I know they, cause I, I was looking to see which way they were turning.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And they turned right.

ROGERS: Now after they dumped her off, what did you do?

YANCY: I, uh, I stayed quiet, thinking about it. Thinking. I thought for about three days, even on the road with my dad.

ROGERS: Well, where were you? Wh, I mean, were you standing out when they kicked her out, or what, uh..

YANCY: Yeah. I was outside.

ROGERS: You were, so you were outside and you saw 'em. Was she wrapped in something?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I think it, yeah, well, I knew she was wrapped at first, because I was, uh, I was in the back holding her.

BROTAN: Well, with what was she wrapped?

YANCY: Uh, uh, some sort of bedsheet type thing. It's a quilt, uh, and it had..

BROTAN: What color was it?

YANCY: I think it, it was a dark color.

BROTAN: Was it patterns or solid colors.

YANCY: Solid. I think it was sta, I, I'm gonna say dark green or black.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Maybe like army blanket green, something like that?

YANCY: Yeah. Okay.

ROGERS: Is that, that the kind of thing you're talking about?

YANCY: Think so.

ROGERS: Okay, I don't wanna put words in you mouth.

YANCY: Either that, either that or black.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: It was a dark color.

ROGERS: Like I say, I don't want to put words in your mouth, but I, I'm just trying to, to say stuff that'll help you to, uh, to better understand and, and get the, the words out. Cause I know it's gotta be tough on you.

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: But, uh..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: Well, after all that happened, I was, I was told not to tell anybody anything or, uh, I was going to, uh, join her. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Okay. You mean join her that, well..

YANCY: (Inaudible) ..

ROGERS: ..explain what you mean.

YANCY: Well, I was going to be killed and thrown in a ditch, as well.

ROGERS: And who told you that?

YANCY: Ah, David.

ROGERS: David did?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: And did you believe him?

YANCY: Well, after I, after that I wouldn't have any other choice, would I?

ROGERS: Well, and that makes a lot of sense that you would feel that way. I mean, uh, he just made you kill your old girlfriend. I would think that, that you're gonna feel pretty threatened by him, too.

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Now, I've been in the Toy Box. Okay? Uh, you've been in the Toy Box. This cot that you're talking about, where is it when you walk in the door?

YANCY: It was right in front of the cabinet.

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: It was a fold cot, it was a folding cot.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Oh, it was? It wasn't one that he has built in, it was a fold up cot.

YANCY: I believe so, yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: You know what color it was?

YANCY: Green.

BROTAN: Green?

ROGERS: Like a, again, like an old military cot?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: How did, uh, how was she, was she chained, was she tied?

YANCY: She was just tied.

ROGERS: She was tied? How was she tied up?

YANCY: Just her hands. Her hands were tied together and tied to the cot.

ROGERS: And tied to the cot?

YANCY: Right. I don't think her legs were tied down at all.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: With what?

YANCY: I don't remember if her legs were or not.

ROGERS: Okay. Was she, uh, when you were, you were choking her was she saying anything or, uh..

YANCY: I don't know.

ROGERS: Well, I mean, uh, seriously, if, I know it's gotta be hard on you to remember this stuff, man. But it, it really is important if she was, was speaking or, uh, you know, saying, David, don't do it, or that kind of stuff. That's the kind of stuff we need to know,

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: because it lets us know a little bit more about what David might have done to her. So, if you want to take a couple of seconds and think about it, that might be the best thing.

YANCY: I don't think she said anything. I don't think she even saw me coming.

ROGERS: Okay, whatta you mean?

YANCY: Saw us in there. I don't even think she knew we were in there.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: Cause I had, when I put the rope around her neck sh, it was too late. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Whatta you mean?

YANCY: She couldn't say anything. I had the rope really tight.

ROGERS: Okay, but you said she wasn't dying fast enough. Was she struggling or..

YANCY: Yeah, she was struggling.

ROGERS: She was? Okay.

YANCY: I can't really recall, uh, every step on that, though.

ROGERS: Sure. Sure. That's, I, I don't blame you. I'd be, I would have forgotten some of that stuff, too.

BROTAN: How, how'd you wrap the rope around? I mean, did you have it around your hands or..

YANCY: I don't know.

ROGERS: Well, now, you said you had your, you, you, felt bad about her being there like that, so you put your knee in her chest and, and made a motion like you pulled up, so, uh, do you remember how that happened? That you would feel that she wasn't going fast enough and, and you wanted..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: It seemed like..

ROGERS: ..to kinda put her out of her..

YANCY: ..forever.

ROGERS: Pardon me?

YANCY: It seemed like it was doing forever.

ROGERS: Well, I, I can see that. What was David doing while you were doing that?

YANCY: I don't know.

ROGERS: He wasn't telling you what to do or directing you or..

YANCY: I don't know. I was trying to just get, get it over with.

ROGERS: Okay, now think about this, though, cause, uh, when you walked out, how did you know what you were supposed to do? Tell me that. Maybe I can get the information that way.

YANCY: I was told, I was told to do that or, I mean, aw, hell, I don't remember. Uh, I think they were telling me on the way out to the Toy Box.

ROGERS: Okay, and you say they, again, that being?

YANCY: David and Jessie.

ROGERS: Okay. Now..

YANCY: It, it was either on the way in there or, or inside of it, I think it was inside the Toy Box when they told me what I was gonna have to do.

ROGERS: And do you remember what they said, or..

YANCY: Oh, uh, not word for word.

ROGERS: Okay, give me a general of what he said, or what they said.

YANCY: That it was time for her to go.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: That he was done with her.

BROTAN: And who gave you the rope?

YANCY: I, I believe Jessie did, Sir.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Oh, did you know, did she have it in her hand, or did she pick it up off the floor?

YANCY: I can't. It might have been inside the, the Toy Box.

BROTAN: She didn't have it in her hands before she walked in the Toy Box?

YANCY: I don't know. I can't recall.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Okay. Well..

YANCY: I have no idea what, what they were doing inside there before that happened, cause I didn't go in there.

ROGERS: You mean as far as him torturing her and that kind of stuff?

YANCY: Correct..

ROGERS: You didn't participate at all in the torture?

YANCY: No way.

ROGERS: Okay. Cause a, a story we get is that, that you were beatin' on her. That you were, were taking a lot of pleasure in beatin' on her.

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Well, that sounds, I can believe that, man. I, this being your, your old girlfriend, I can see that you wouldn't be in there just beatin' the crap out of her.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: No.

ROGERS: Did you have sex with her or, uh, anything like that?

YANCY: Uh, before they kidnapped her, yes.

ROGERS: Oh, you mean as, when you were boyfriend and girlfriend you did?

YANCY: Well, yeah, I mean, like two or three days before they kidnapped her.

ROGERS: Oh, okay. So you..

YANCY: See, she was trying to get me on her good side cause she didn't like living on the beach and I didn't like it either. But there was nothing I could really do, cause I was with my father.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: There's nothing I could do for her.

ROGERS: So you, she was wantin' you to help her and you were kinda wantin' to help her?

YANCY: She never really came out and said that she wanted me to help her. But I could tell by the way she was flirting with me and talking, you know,

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: Real sweetly and what have you.

ROGERS: And having sex with you and..

YANCY: I only had sex with her one time.

ROGERS: Okay. Well, now, once you got to the house, let's go back over this some, uh, you picked her up where?

YANCY: At the Blue Water Saloon.

ROGERS: Okay. And, uh, how did she manage to find you guys? How did that happen?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I believe there was a prior arrangement that were set up behi, be, between her and Jessie.

ROGERS: And why, what makes you believe that? You say you believe it. What do you mean?

YANCY: Well, cause Jessie said that she was gonna pick up Marie over there and they were going to go get some crank for her and what have you.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: I don't, I don't personally do crank because I have an adverse reaction to it.

ROGERS: Oh, really.

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay, cause see that's another lie that we heard, that you did a lot of crank.

YANCY: Uh, I've, I've tried it two or three times and it just, it puts me to sleep. It's kind of like, well, what I tell them, what it, well, cause I was a Ritalin baby, too. I don't know, exactly know how it..

ROGERS: Oh, okay.

YANCY: ..connects together, but, but, uh, like I've had several people try to do it and I tell 'em just to, you know, sell it somewhere else to make some money, cause it's not gonna have no effect on me.

ROGERS: Okay. Well, you get her out to the car, or..

YANCY: She got into the, to the, uh, Ram.

ROGERS: She got into the Ram.

YANCY: And we went to the hill.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And..

ROGERS: And this is the hill, describe the hill for me again.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

BROTAN: Where's that at?

YANCY: It's, it's, uh, near the exit to Albuquerque, out of T. or C. It's, uh, it's by a graveyard.

ROGERS: By a graveyard?

YANCY: Yes.

ROGERS: And this is what, north of town?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: Okay. You remember what the highway is? Is it, uh, I-25 and..

YANCY: I think it's I-25.

ROGERS: Okay. And, uh, you go up there and what happens when you get there?

YANCY: Uh, Jessie says it's, "He's not here now." Gets, gets down and walks around to the side of the, to the other side and pulls a gun on her, handcuffs her, tells her to get in the back, not to move or scream or she's gonna kill her. And then she commanded me to get in the back, to hold her down. And I wasn't re, I didn't really have to hold her down, cause she was, I mean, we were both scared.

BROTAN: She handcuffed in the front or in the back?

YANCY: I think in the front. I'm not real cl, sure. I don't remember too much of that.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Well, from there what happens? Where do you go?

YANCY: We go back to the trailer.

ROGERS: Okay. And what happens once you get to the trailer?

YANCY: I got down and got, I went back inside.

ROGERS: Okay. And you did what when you got inside?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I, uh, well I, I, I think my dad was in there, but I was pretty much staring at the T.V. I'm looking at, and, and glancing back and forth to the phone, thinking about calling the police.

ROGERS: Okay, were you scared?

YANCY: Well, yes, Sir.

ROGERS: And what were you scared of?

YANCY: I was afraid of what they were gonna do.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: To me.

ROGERS: To you?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Were you afraid of what they were going to do to her?

YANCY: I had an idea of what they were going to do.

ROGERS: And, but were you..

YANCY: That's why I was thinking about the, calling the police, but I didn't wanna..

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: ..join her. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Well, that, that makes sense.

BROTAN: Was there anybody else in the house besides you, you and your father?

YANCY: I think it was just me and my father. And I'm not, and I'm, and I'm still unclear if he was there or not, cause I was thinking a lot. I was, had a lot on my mind.

BROTAN: Okay.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Now, wh, while you're, you're in there, what did they do? They being David and Jessie. What did they do?

YANCY: Uh, I, the, they took Marie into the, to the, the small trailer, the Toy Box.

ROGERS: Okay. And you described the Toy Box to us earlier.

YANCY: Yeah.

ROGERS: Uh, did a pretty good job of describing it. So thinking in your head, how many days went by? How many times did you wake up in the morning and, and wonder what was going on with her?

YANCY: Two or three days.

ROGERS: Two or three days? So he had her in the Toy Box two or three days? You need to say yes or no because you're shaking your head.

YANCY: Yes.

ROGERS: That's okay, but..

YANCY: I'm, I'm, I'm, I'm gonna say about two or three days. That's how it felt.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: Where were you staying at this time?

YANCY: There.

BROTAN: Right at David's house?

YANCY: Either, either there or on the beach.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Well..

YANCY: Yeah.

BROTAN: And where at on the beach?

YANCY: Uh, right down the street from where he lived.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

BROTAN: Okay. Is there a name for that beach or..

YANCY: Uh, uh, there is but I, it's changed. It used to be Jet Boat Cove or, uh, Detours.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: Now, two or three days goes by and, uh, it's time for you to, to take care of her for David. Tell us a, a, again real fast how that went. Just how, how did it take place? You were in the house, you were outside, what, when they came to get you?

YANCY: I was in the house.

ROGERS: Okay. And how did it take place? What did, what was said?

YANCY: They said that, uh, David was finished with her, or done with her, and that it was time for her to go.

ROGERS: Okay. And, uh..

BROTAN: Did you question as to what they meant by that?

YANCY: No, Sir.

ROGERS: Did you know what they meant?

BROTAN: Did you know?

YANCY: Well, I was hoping that they were going to let her go.
(Laughs)

ROGERS: But in..

YANCY: But I, but I thi, but I kinda knew better.

ROGERS: Okay. You mean you kinda knew better. What, uh, explain that for me.

YANCY: That they were probably gonna end up killing her.

ROGERS: That they were gonna end up killing her?

BROTAN: Did David tell you what he was doing in, to her? For the two or three days that he had her?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: No, he didn't get into details on what he was doing.

BROTAN: But he said something.

YANCY: Well, I, I knew that she was getting tortured.

BROTAN: Okay.

ROGERS: How'd you know that?

YANCY: Because of the stories that he had told me before.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And, uh, and what Jessie had told me.

ROGERS: What did, what did Jessie tell you?

YANCY: That he's had this fetish for awhile.

ROGERS: This fetish of torturing women?

YANCY: Torturing women. Yes, Sir.

ROGERS: Okay. Now, to jump ahead a little bit, after you kill her and, and try and, and I understand that you're trying to save her from having to go through any more of the stuff that, that David was doing and I'm sure it's pretty horrible stuff.

YANCY: And I was doing what they were telling me, also.

ROGERS: Sure. Now, uh, you say that, that you all went out someplace to dump her body.

YANCY: Correct.

ROGERS: Uh, you don't know exactly where that is?

YANCY: Not exactly, no.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, would you know enough to maybe be able to find it if we went out there and looked around?

YANCY: If we went out there and looked around I could probably, but it was, like I say, at night.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: How, how late at night was it?

YANCY: Uh, I'm not sure.

ROGERS: Do you remember any houses around or..

YANCY: Naw, there was nothing around.

ROGERS: There was..

BROTAN: Remem, remember hearing any traffic?

YANCY: I remember there was some telephone poles.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: But that's about all I can honestly remember.

ROGERS: Like big old telephone poles, like big power poles, or small ones?

YANCY: No, just the small ones.

ROGERS: Just the small ones?

YANCY: Believe so.

ROGERS: Okay. I'm gonna go ahead and stop the tape and, and turn it around, cause, uh, it's startin' to run out, but I appreciate you doing this and we'll, we'll get right back to it. Hold on a second.

(End of Side A of tape.)

(Beginning of Side B of tape.)

ROGERS: Ok, we're back on tape again. It's about, uh, uh, ten minutes 'till three on April the 9th, 1999. Uh, I stopped the tape cause it was, it was gettin' ready to run out. But, uh, what I was gonna ask you is, in it, in describing where you went, uh, it was dark and you couldn't really see where you were. But you remember telephone poles? Right?

YANCY: Ye, yeah, or power lines or what have you.

ROGERS: Was it a real deep ravine?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: Yes, it was.

ROGERS: Like deep enough that if you'd have jumped off, it'd, it'd have hurt you?

YANCY: It would hurt, yes Sir.

ROGERS: Ok, now, uh, uh, could you hear cars or see cars?

YANCY: I can't, I don't remember if I did or not.

ROGERS: Don't remember?

YANCY: I was more or less focused on what was going on.

ROGERS: Ok. And you say they had her wrapped in something, uh, a blanket? Something, some kind of, of bed linen. Something like that. Uh, when they dumped her, did they keep the, the thing they had her wrapped in?

YANCY: I, yeah, I think so. I don't think they threw it in the hole with her.

BROTAN: Oh, they just threw the body?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: Ok. Was, was it a hole or was it a, a ravine?

YANCY: It was where water had eroded through.

ROGERS: Oh, it was?

YANCY: A, a ra, I guess that would be a ravine.

ROGERS: A, a pretty good sized arroyo or ravine, huh?

YANCY: Yeah. Yeah.

ROGERS: Uh..

BROTAN: Was she dressed or was she naked or?

YANCY: I believe she was naked.

BROTAN: She didn't have anything on her?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I don't think so.

ROGERS: Did she used to wear jewelry or anything?

YANCY: I don't, I think she wore rings.

ROGERS: Rings? When you were datin' her, did she wear rings?

YANCY: I think so. I think I might have even bought her one or two.

ROGERS: Really? Do you remember any of 'em at all?

YANCY: No, it's been awhile. I've, I've gone through so many girlfriends since then. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Oh, that, that happens, man. Uh, uh, in doing this, uh, do you remember if she had any rings on her fingers, still, or?

YANCY: No sir, I don't remember.

ROGERS: Don't remember it? Would, would you have noticed, do you think, if she didn't have 'em on?

YANCY: Probably not.

ROGERS: Okay.

BROTAN: What about necklaces or earrings?

YANCY: I didn't, uh, I don't think they had, I don't think they kept anything on her.

ROGERS: Okay. You don't think they'd let her have anything that they...?

YANCY: No.

ROGERS: If she would, would they have taken it away from her? If she had had earrings and stuff on?

YANCY: Probably.

ROGERS: Probably? Okay. Uh, well, how was her hair? How did she have her hair?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

YANCY: Short.

ROGERS: It was short, like, like a boy's cut? Like a guy wears?

YANCY: I think so, yeah.

ROGERS: Describe her to us.

ROGERS: Yeah.

BROTAN: How tall would you say she was?

YANCY: Five seven. In that area. I know she was a little bit shorter than I was, five nine.

BROTAN: How much?

YANCY: Uh, and a hundred and twenty, hundred and thirty pounds. In that area.

ROGERS: Was she well built?

YANCY: Yes. She wasn't fat at all, really.

ROGERS: Wasn't fat?

YANCY: No.

ROGERS: Did she have big boobs or little boobs or?

YANCY: Medium size.

ROGERS: Medium size? So she was pretty well built and, uh, was she an attractive woman?

YANCY: Yes she was.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, and..

BROTAN: She have scars or marks or?

YANCY: I don't remember.

BROTAN: Moles or anything?

YANCY: I don't re, I don't..

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: How about tattoos?

YANCY: I don't know if she had any tattoos. I think she did.

ROGERS: Do you remember where they might be?

YANCY: Not really. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Okay. Uhm, and that stuff we can talk about later, cause that, I know it's hard to remember all that kinda detail. But if we ask you, then maybe it gets little things in your mind goin' where you could kinda picture what was goin' on. You know? So, uh, after they did that, what happened? What did you all do? After they threw her in the, the ditch, what did you all do?

YANCY: It was pretty much a silent trimp all the way, a silent trip all the back to the, to the trailer.

ROGERS: Okay, where were you sittin'?

YANCY: I was back in the back, again, laying down.

ROGERS: In the, laying down in the back?

YANCY: Thinking. Yes.

BROTAN: Back, back up just a little to when you're there. Who pulls her out? She's, she's located in the back of the, the Ram?

YANCY: I, I, I don't remember who was doing that. I might have helped or, or it's her, or Jessie or her dad.

BROTAN: Okay. And then they, they pull her body out. She's in, in the blanket. And then..?

YANCY: They rolled her off into the ditch.

BROTAN: Okay. Was there anything said then?

BROTAN: Okay.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: And they, as, as far as rolling her off, she was laying on the ground? And they just like rolled her off, or did they toss her off?

YANCY: I think, I think that she rolled. I don't remember.

ROGERS: What was her body like? Was she stiff or was she limp or?

YANCY: Uh, well, when I was laying back, holding her, she had, had a bowel movement, she, uh, shit. And I think that she was still, still loose.

ROGERS: Okay. And, uh, but when she went to the bathroom on herself there, what, what were you doin' while you were drivin' around, or while they were drivin' around with you and her in the back?

YANCY: I was holding her.

ROGERS: Did you feel bad about what had happened?

YANCY: Oh yes.

ROGERS: Okay. That's important stuff, man, whether you felt bad about it or not. So, when you get back in, what'd they do with the, the thing they had her covered with?

YANCY: I think they threw it back in the, in the, into the Ram, Dodge.

ROGERS: They threw it back into the Dodge? What color was the Dodge?

YANCY: White.

ROGERS: White? Okay. So they threw it back in the Dodge and then, what did, did you get in the, the Dodge then?

YANCY: In the back.

ROGERS: In the back. And you were layin' down. Is that right?

YANCY: Yes, Sir.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: What do you remember about driving back? Was the road real rough?

YANCY: It was, it was, uh, I can't really recall how long a distance the dirt road was, but it was on a dirt road. I was, like I say, I was in deep thought.

ROGERS: Okay. But it, if, well, if we can think about it, then..

YANCY: I'd say, I'd say maybe a five-minute ride off the highway.

ROGERS: Off of the highway?

YANCY: Yeah.

ROGERS: You don't have any idea if it was north or south or?

YANCY: I know we took a left when we were going out there and then we took a right to come back.

ROGERS: You took a left to go out there? Off of what road?

YANCY: Off the old highway, uh, I think it's 177.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: I'd, well I'd, I'd read in the paper that it was 177.

ROGERS: You read in the paper that it is 177? What do you mean?

YANCY: Well yeah, cause I don't know the highways that well.

ROGERS: Oh.

YANCY: And, uh, there was a collision out there by the Diamond Shamrock, about where he lives.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And they were saying that that was 177.

ROGERS: Oh, so..

YANCY: So I'm gonna guess that's 177, or 187.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: On the dirt road.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: But, if we could find that dirt road, we would be able to find that big ass hole.

ROGERS: Do you think you'd remember it?

YANCY: If I saw it, I probably would.

ROGERS: Okay, would you have a problem with us, in a, a little while, going for a drive and trying to find that?

YANCY: I don't have a problem with it. I'll have to call my work and tell 'em that I'm not gonna be coming in tonight. (Laughs)

ROGERS: Well, well, would you, would you mind that? Cause we really do need to, to try and locate this.

YANCY: No, I don't mind. I don't mind.

ROGERS: You know, there's something that you gotta think about it, man. And that's that Marie's mom has been waitin' and waitin' and waitin' to find out what's happened here. And by doin' what you're doin' here, we're gonna be able to, to help her. Cause as much as you've suffered with all of this stuff that's gone on, she's suffered too. And we've gotta try and, and, and help her with that. Cause, you know, you, you kept Marie from having to, to suffer with David torturing her anymore. Uh, now we can stop the, the torture that her mother feels by not knowing what happened to her daughter. You know? Uh, Norman, we've been kinda controlling all of this. Do you have any questions you need to ask him? Anything that, uh, that you need to get clarified for yourself?

RHOADES: I just had one. That blanket, she was wrapped up in the blanket and when they then pulled her out and carried her to the edge of this ravine and held on the blanket and just rolled her out of the blanket?

YANCY: I, I think that's how they did it, yes.

RHOADES: And what'd they do with that blanket?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Okay. Did you ever get out on the Interstate?

YANCY: I don't think they did.

ROGERS: You don't think so?

YANCY: No.

ROGERS: Okay. So you stayed on that road, how long from David's house? Was it a long trip?

YANCY: Whew, I don't, I had, uh, it, it was a long trip for me.

ROGERS: Okay, seemed like a long time, anyway, huh? Uh, then you turned left off of whatever road you were on, you turned left. Did you, when you turned..

YANCY: I, I'm thinkin' that we stayed on that same highway.

ROGERS: All the way?

YANCY: Yeah.

ROGERS: Okay. But you said, you said when you, so when you turned left, are you talking about coming out of David's house, you turned left?

YANCY: No, going on the highway, we turned left onto a dirt road.

ROGERS: Onto a dirt road?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: Did it immediately turn to dirt?

YANCY: Right.

ROGERS: When you, when you turned off, you remember hittin' dirt, right off the bat?

YANCY: Yes. Yes.

ROGERS: Okay. So, uh, there was about five minutes on, on the dirt.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: I think they put it back, I, I think they put it back into the Blaz, into the Ram.

RHOADES: Okay. Were you laying on it, on your way back? Do you remember?

RHOADES: Okay. Did you..

YANCY: I was laying on my back, just thinking. So..

RHOADES: Okay. Did they have weapons that night that you were with them?

YANCY: I don't know.

RHOADES: Okay. But you were afraid for you life, too, though?

YANCY: Oh, yeah.

RHOADES: The next day, or the, the couple of days later, you were still at David's house, did you see that blanket ever again?

YANCY: No Sir.

ROGERS: How long did you stay at David's house after that?

YANCY: I think, I think only a day or two.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: At the most.

ROGERS: Now, just, just for our, to try to help us pinpoint a day when this happened, do you remember anything that was going on? You said it was your sister's birthday, back then, so you knew what month it was. What month was your, was it?

YANCY: In July.

ROGERS: In July. Was it at the first of July, middle of July, after the fourth?

YANCY: After the, after the fourth.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: After the fourth. When's your sister's birthday?

YANCY: June, July fourth.

ROGERS: July fourth is her birthday. Okay. So was it like a week after that, or?

YANCY: It was, it was, we weren't, we weren't in T. or C., I mean, in Elephant Butte for too long.

ROGERS: Okay. Well, uh, I don't know what you mean by that.

YANCY: About a, about a week. I'd have to ask my dad how long we were there to come up with specific days that we were there.

ROGERS: Okay. Uh, were you working back then? Did you have a job?

YANCY: No. I was, I was traveling with my dad.

ROGERS: Ok, so you didn't have any time, or, we, we're just trying to figure out a way to, to figure out what day this actually took place.

YANCY: I'm thinking that when that happened, I was working at a Stuckey's in Albuquerque, when he showed up.

ROGERS: What do you mean, when he showed up? When your dad showed up?

YANCY: When my dad, when my dad showed up.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And said that he wanted to take me, get, get back to know me and everything.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And I said, ok, well, hell, I'm not going anywhere here in Albuquerque. So I jumped in the van with him. I told him we had to stop through here to say goodbye to friends and, and maybe pick up some other personal belongings that I had.

ROGERS: Okay.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: Plus, it was my sister's birthday.

ROGERS: Okay, so did you arrive by your sister's birthday?
Did you, were you there by the fourth of July?

YANCY: Yeah, I was out on the beach with, uh, with my sister and my mom and my dad. Well my dad stayed over there and I went to visit my, my sister and my mom and my step-dad.

ROGERS: Ok. So how many days after your sister's birthday do you think it was when, when, uh, Jessie grabbed her?

YANCY: Well it was real close, it was real close. It had to have been either a Friday or a Saturday.

ROGERS: A Friday or a Saturday?

YANCY: Yeah.

ROGERS: So whatever day the fourth of July was..

YANCY: Cause the, cause the, because the, the reason why I say that is because the Blue Waters had a lot of people in it, telling..

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: By telling, from the parking lot, there was a lot of cars there, so it was either Friday or Saturday.

RHOADES: Did anyone else have knowledge of this incident?

YANCY: No, not that I know of.

BROTAN: Did you ever tell anyone?

YANCY: No. No, it, that, just like I say, they threatened that I would join Marie if I said anything to anybody. That's why I've been so hesitant to say anything, because Jessie's still out there running around.
(Laughs)

ROGERS: Right. Well, but then, understand, we're not gonna rush out and tell Jessie that you said anything.

YANCY: I know that. Okay.

INTERVIEW WITH RO~~O~~ YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: So, uh, in all sincerity, do you feel better telling it and getting it off your chest?

YANCY: Oh, yeah. I've been wanting to tell somebody for a long time. In fact, I've come real close to telling my wife on occasions.

ROGERS: Okay. Now, we're probably going to go ahead and stop this now and we'll, uh, have a smoke and, and, uh, uh, take a w, a drink of water and that kind of stuff, but, uh, if you need to call your boss and let him know, then, that you're..

YANCY: Yeah, I'd better do that.

ROGERS: Yeah, cause it's, it's something if, if we can, we really want to get that done today.

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: Okay? And, uh, we're gonna have to make a few phone calls and..

YANCY: Maybe it'd be better if you called my work and told them.

RHOADES: Okay.

ROGERS: Can you do that, Norman?

RHOADES: I'll do it.

ROGERS: Okay, and, uh..

YANCY: I don't know that number. I've only worked there a day and a half, so..

ROGERS: Where is it?

YANCY: The Black Range Motel.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: And Restaurant.

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY
APRIL 9, 1999

ROGERS: Okay. But, uh, he'll take care of that and, uh, uh, we'll go ahead and terminate the interview, which, uh, means we're going to quit and then you can..

YANCY: We'll go look for her.

ROGERS: You can go have a smoke and we'll go look for it, cause we really would like to find her. We really would like to find where she is. And, uh, I think you can probably help us with that a lot.

YANCY: Okay.

ROGERS: And we appreciate it, uh, uh, again, need to reiterate that you did this on your own free will, right? Uh, didn't, uh, nobody coerced you or anything like that, right?

YANCY: Correct.

ROGERS: Okay. And, uh..

BROTAN: Since, since we've talked, is there anything else that's popped up in your mind that you can remember?

YANCY: Well, all's I can say at this point is that after that incident I, I pretty much stayed away from that area. I mean, I would keep in touch with them, to let them know that I've been cool and, and everything, but, uh, and when, uh, David and Cindy got together I thought, oh, thank God, man. They're gonna, you know, he's gonna have a woman there that likes it and that, you know, they'll be happy together and he'll stop doing that.

ROGERS: Did you? You actually thought he would quit? That..

YANCY: I did actually think that he was, I had never, I hadn't heard of any other ones, after Marie.

ROGERS: Okay.

YANCY: So, I heard that he would have told me anyway.

ROGERS: Okay. Do you know of any of 'em before Marie that he told you about?

INTERVIEW WITH ROY YANCY

APRIL 9, 1999

YANCY: Actually I, I don't really know. He said that he used to pick up prostitutes in Albuquerque.

ROGERS: And what would he do with them?

YANCY: Uh, torture 'em. Probably end up killing them.

ROGERS: When you say..

YANCY: He never really, he never really told me any of the details on it. That, just that, that him and Jessie would both say that he would just go pick up a prostitute in Albuquerque. Pretty much, they're the easiest targets, he'd say.

ROGERS: Okay. Anything else, guys? Anything else you want to say?

YANCY: I'd, well, yeah, that I'm, that I'm happy that he's caught.

ROGERS: Are you?

YANCY: I'm still kinda worried of, on my safety, cause he knows a lot of people from what I understand.

ROGERS: Well, I, I need you to understand. He tells people that. He wants to try and make sure that you're, that you're afraid of him. So, uh, that's the kinda stuff he is gonna say. But, uh, what we're gonna do a, after this, once we, we stop the interview and go try and find her, we're gonna try and keep in real good close contact with you, and, uh, uh, make sure that, uh, the District Attorney knows that, that you, uh, decided to cooperate and, and do the right thing, and, and, uh, we're gonna be, uh, right up front with him about it that, that, uh, you told us as much as, as we felt that you could tell us. And that it didn't, we didn't have to, to, uh, come in here and, and scream and holler and jump up and down to get you to do it. That you, you admitted right off the bat that, that you had strangled her and, uh, uh, then decided to go ahead and tell us the whole story. And I think that, uh, I can't promise you that that makes a lot of, of difference, but I believe that, uh, uh, in telling the D.A. that you did all of that, that it's got to be better than going in and telling him that you refused

ROGERS: to cooperate. You know? So, uh, and I think, I, I speak for all three of us that we're gonna go tell him that, that you did the right thing and told us everything about it and what David did and what Jessie did and, and even what you did. And we, I think we all appreciate it and I know that Marie's family's gonna appreciate it. So, we're gonna go ahead and terminate the interview. The time is approximately, uh, 3:05, uh, April the ninth, 1999.

I CERTIFY THAT THE FOREGOING IS, TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF, A TRUE AND CORRECT TRANSCRIPTION OF THE STATEMENT OF ROY YANCY, TAKEN ON APRIL 9TH, 1999, AND TRANSCRIBED ON MAY 6TH, 1999.

NARRATIVE

On March 22, 1999, New Mexico State Police Criminal Investigation Sergeant Jose Ramirez assigned me to assist Agent Wesley LaCuesta in the investigation of the alleged crimes of Kidnapping and Criminal Sexual Penetration reported to have occurred on March 20, 1999 in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico.

Sergeant Ramirez advised that two suspects had been identified and they were being detained at the Richard Cooper Boat Training Center in the Elephant Butte Lake area. He assigned New Mexico State Police Agent Westley LaCuesta as the Case Agent, and Agent Norman Rhoades and I were to assist him in the investigation.

At approximately 6:30 p.m., I met with Agent LaCuesta at the training center that is located off State Road 195 in the Elephant Butte Lake Area. Agent LaCuesta said that the victim was identified to be a Cynthia Vigil, who was alleging to have been kidnapped from Albuquerque, New Mexico, and raped for several days. He said she was located while the deputies were responding to a 911 emergency call at a residence in the Elephant Butte Lake area. She was found naked and wearing a chain around her neck.

Agent LaCuesta advised that the other deputies who responded to the 911 emergency call at 513 Bass Road, discovered the residence belonged to a State Parks employee, David Parker Ray. He said that after the deputies entered the residence, they discovered that some type of physical struggle had occurred, but found no one there.

Agent LaCuesta advised that the deputies advised they had observed various restraint devices and sexual items used for sex bondage, when they realized that the victim of the kidnapping and rape was connected to this address.

Agent LaCuesta said that the deputies located David Parker Ray and a girlfriend of his, Cindy Hendy, traveling near his residence and they were stopped and detained for questioning. He understands that Ms. Hendy is being implicated by the victim as a participant of the alleged crimes.

Agent LaCuesta advised me that the two suspects were presently being detained inside the training center and he requested that no one interview them, until he meets with the victim at the Sierra Vista Medical Center, and he consults with the Assistant District Attorney.

Agent LaCuesta advised that he was on his way to meet with the victim and directed me to relieve New Mexico State Police Officer David Candelaria, who was securing the suspect's vehicle as evidence inside the training center, and he left.

I then met with Officer David Candelaria in the garage where the suspect's vehicle was parked and I assumed the responsibility of it. I recorded the transfer on a New Mexico State Police Receipt of Property or Evidence form. I was advised by Officer Candelaria advised that the vehicle was towed to the Training Center by A & E Towing Service from Truth or Consequence, New Mexico. A copy of the evidence form is attached for review. (See Attachment#1.)

I placed an inquiry with the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division on the license plate 1807-RVP, displayed on this vehicle, and found that the vehicle is registered to a Tina Severns. Ms. Severns address is P.O. Box 503, in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. The suspect vehicle is described as a 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle with vehicle identification number of #RH28140120.

The condition of the exterior of this vehicle was recorded on a New Mexico State Police Towing Authorization form. The interior inspection was not looked into without a search warrant. I then started a Crime Scene Log on the 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle. I have attached a copy of the tow bill from A & E Towing Service, the Towing Authorization and the Crime Scene Log for review. (See Attachment #2.)

I then followed up this investigation by conducting several interviews of the officers that responded to the 911 emergency call. My investigation also included a background check into the employment regarding suspect David Parker Ray.

The first interview conducted was with New Mexico State Police Officer David Candelaria regarding his involvement in the case. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: OFFICER DAVID CANDELARIA

New Mexico State Police Officer David Candelaria said that he was off duty at the time he received a call from Central Dispatch, requesting him to respond to an alleged rape and kidnapping at the Elephant Butte area. He said they advised him that he was to standby until the investigators from the New Mexico State Police arrived from Las Cruces, New Mexico. He was told that the victim was at the Sierra Vista Medical Center in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, being treated for her injuries.

Officer Candelaria said as he went into service, he drove over to the Medical Center where the victim was at. He said he met up with Border Patrol Agent Robert Johnston and Deputy Lucas Alvarez, who were securing the victim identified as Cynthia Vigil. The victim was being treated for her injuries and shock, when he found out that Deputy David Elston was in another room securing one of the two suspects, Cindy Hendy. She was also there being treatment for an injury to her head.

Officer Candelaria advised that upon meeting with Deputy Elston, he was advised that the victim had been found naked, and had a padlocked chain around her neck. He was told that the victim was claiming that she had escaped from a residence belonging to a State Park employee by the name of "Ray." She was alleging that she had been kidnapped, beaten and raped by "Ray," and a girlfriend of his during her confinement at the residence.

Officer Candelaria said that Deputy Elston told him that he had responded to a 911 emergency call at a residence belonging to David Parker Ray, when they connected the naked woman to the 911 call coming from this residence. It was not until a short time later, that they later located Mr. Ray and his girlfriend Cindy Hendy on the road, when both suspects were detained for questioning and taken to the training center in the Elephant Butte Lake area.

Officer Candelaria said about the time he was leaving the Medial Center to go over to the training center, he overhead suspect Cindy Hendy state, "That girl should be checked out because the bitch is on heroin." He soon arrived at the training center, where he met with State Parks Officers Chris Degase and Michael Lanford. One officer was with the suspect David Parker Ray, in one of the training rooms and the other one was securing Mr. Ray's vehicle in the garage.

Officer Candelaria said that Deputy Elston soon after arrived with suspect Cindy Hendy, where she was placed in another room and secured by one of the State Park Officers. He assumed the responsibility in securing Mr. Ray's vehicle, while the other officer secured suspect Hendy and concluded his interview.

The next interview conducted was with New Mexico State Parks Officers Chris Degase and Michael Lanford. They were found securing the two suspects in two different rooms of the center. When I met with them, they both said that they had responded to assist the deputies in the 911 emergency call at the lake.

When I introduced myself to both suspects, they were not being detained in handcuffs. I advised David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy that the investigator in charge of the case would be meeting with them later regarding the criminal allegations being brought against them. I reminded them of their constitutional rights, under Miranda.

I then conducted an interview with New Mexico State Parks Officer Chris Degase. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: NM STATE PARKS OFFICER CHRIS DEGASE

New Mexico State Parks Officer Chris Degase advised that he and Officer Michael Lanford responded to a 911 hang-up call, after realizing that the emergency call came from one of their State Park lease properties at the Elephant Butte area. He said that Officer Byron Wilson later met up with them at the residence on Bass Road.

Officer Degase said that he and Officer Lanford were at the State Park Office when they overheard Central Dispatch direct Sierra County Deputy David Elston to 513 Bass Road in the Elephant Butte Lake area. They both were aware of the street address, when they decided to assist the deputy.

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	-----------	----------

Officer Degase said as they proceeded to that location and were traveling on Springland Boulevard, they overheard Central Dispatch notify Deputy David Elston, that they had received another call on a naked lady running around in the same area. At the same time, they were waved down by an unidentified woman, driving a green vehicle, that was reporting seeing a naked woman running down the road with a chain around her neck.

Officer Degase told this driver that they were en route to an emergency call, but for her to standby for the deputy that was responding, and report the incident. He said that they continued until they arrived at 513 Bass Road, when he recognized the residence belonged to State Parks employee David Parker Ray. He knew it was David Parker Ray's residence by the name being listed on the front of the chain link fence of the property. He said he knows Mr. Ray, because he is the State Parks Region #3 mechanic for the Elephant Butte Lake area.

Officer Degase said that Deputy David Elston had not yet arrived, so they decided to check to see if anyone would respond from inside the residence. They knocked on the west side entrance door, but received no reply from within. They decided at this point not to enter the residence until the deputy arrived.

Officer Degase said after Deputy David Elston and Sheriff Terry Byers arrived, Deputy Elston and Officer Lanford entered the residence through an unlocked sliding glass door, and found no one inside. He said that during the walk through of the residence, they discovered in one of the rooms chains hanging down from the ceiling, and observed several sexual devices described as dilidos, pliers, scissors, clips, leather harnesses and muzzles on a bedroom dresser. He said that they were items that are used in sexual bondage.

Officer Degase said as he was exiting the residence through the north side living room area, he also observed a small bed with chains containing a padlock on the bedposts. He noticed that there was an ice pick lying next to the bed on the floor, a broken green lamp, and apparent human bloodstains on the blankets.

Officer Degase said that, after they had exited the residence, Deputy Peter Bowidowicz arrived at their location, where he met with Sheriff Terry Byers. Deputy Bowidowicz advised Sheriff Byers about finding the naked woman at a residence on Hot Springs Road and the physical and emotional condition she was found in.

Deputy Bowidowicz advised them that the naked woman was very upset, and she was claiming to have been kidnapped and sexually molested by a State Parks employee going by the name of "Ray." Deputy Bowidowicz said that Deputy Lucas Alvarez and Border Patrol Agent Robert Johnston were with the victim, and they were getting ready to transport the victim to the medical center for treatment.

Officer Degase said that is when they connected the incidents together and they decided that they needed to locate David Parker Ray for questioning. He said at that time State Parks Officer Byron Wilson had also arrived at their location and overhead the conversation about David Parker Ray. Officer Wilson mentioned to them that he had just passed David Parker Ray on the road, and Mr. Ray was seen driving his tan colored recreational vehicle on Springland Boulevard.

Officer Degase said that they left the Bass residence and went to locate David Parker Ray. They located David Parker Ray traveling on Springland Boulevard, when he was stopped. They discovered he had a female passenger with him, that was identified as Cindy Hendy. She was found to have apparent blood stains on her head, hands and legs.

Officer Degase said that both suspects were read their constitutional rights by Deputy Elston and detained for questioning. He overhead suspect Cindy Hendy state, as she was being placed inside the police vehicle, "That the bitch hit her on the head with a lamp."

Officer Degase said he was advised that the investigation was being transferred over to the New Mexico State Police, and they were to standby with both suspects until the investigators arrived. Both suspects were then taken to the Richard R. Cooper Boat training center in the Elephant Butte area, where Mr. Ray's vehicle was towed to and secured.

Officer Degase said he secured David Parker Ray in one of the rooms at the training center and did not question him at anytime regarding the criminal allegations being brought against him. He said that Officer Michael Lanford secured Cindy Hendy inside another room after she arrived from receiving treatment for her head injury.

Officer Degase said that during this investigative detention of both suspects, he overheard Cindy Hendy say the following about the victim: "She is a heroin addict and this is what we get for trying to help someone." Officer Degase closed the interview by advising me he would submit a typed statement documenting his involvement in the case at a later date and concluded his interview.

The next interview conducted was with New Mexico State Parks Officer Michael Lanford. The following is a synopsis of his interview, taken on March 22, 1999.

INTERVIEW: NM STATE PARKS OFFICER MICHAEL LANFORD

New Mexico State Parks Officer Michael Lanford confirmed that he overheard the 911 hang-up call with Officer Chris Degase. They both decided to assist Deputy David Elston, after realizing the call came from a residence in the State Parks lease properties. He related the same information that Officer Degase said about being waved down by a woman driver reporting seeing a naked woman running around with a chain around her neck.

Officer Lanford said that after arriving at 513 Bass Road, he also recognized the residence belonged to a State Parks employee, David Parker Ray, and he knew who he was. He said that he and Officer Degase did check to see if anyone would respond from inside the residence after knocking on the front door. They did not receive any answer and they decided to wait until Deputy Elston arrived.

Officer Lanford said that after Deputy David Elston and Sheriff Terry Byers arrived, they entered the residence through an unlocked sliding glass door and found no one inside. He observed during the security check of the residence, several sexual devices on a dresser, chains hanging from the ceiling, and leather straps and whips in one of the bedrooms.

Officer Lanford said the living room was a small bed with a broken green lamp on it. He observed what appeared to be human bloodstains on the carpet. He saw that this bed had chains attached to it with padlocks on each of the corners of the bed, and he saw an ice pick lying on the floor as he walked out.

Officer Lanford advised that after David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy were detained for questioning, he over heard David Parker Ray say that he had picked up Cindy Hendy walking on the road, right before they were stopped by them. He did not question either of the suspects during their detention and concluded his interview. He said that he would be submitting a statement documenting his involvement in this investigation.

The next interviewed was conducted with Sierra County Sheriff Terry Byers. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: SHERIFF TERRY BYERS

Sierra County Sheriff Terry Byers advised he responded to the 911 hang-up call in the Elephant Butte area, along with the other deputies. When he arrived at 513 Bass Road and met with Deputy Elston he became aware that the residence belonged to a State Park employee by the name of David Parker Ray.

Sheriff Byers said that, during a security check of the residence, no one was found inside, but he did see sexual paraphernalia inside one of the rooms. It appeared that some type of struggle had occurred on a bed by the broken lamp due to the bloodstains he observed on it.

Sheriff Byers advised that after they had exited the residence, Deputy Peter Bowidowicz arrived and reported that they had found a naked woman at another residence in the State Park that was claiming to have been kidnapped and raped by a State Park employee called "Ray." Deputy Bowidowicz identified the victim as Cynthia Vigil.

Sheriff Byers said that State Parks Officer Byron Wilson, who had just arrived, overheard the conversation about David Parker Ray. Officer Wilson mentioned to them seeing Mr. Ray traveling east on Springland Boulevard in his tan colored recreational vehicle. He said that is when they located Mr. Ray on the road. He said Mr. Ray was stopped and found to be in the company of his girlfriend Cindy Hendy.

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

Sheriff Byers said that after assessing the situation and their limited resources, he requested the New Mexico State Police to follow up and conduct the investigation. Both suspects were then detained until the New Mexico State Police investigators arrived and he had Mr. Ray's recreational vehicle towed to the training center. He then concluded his interview.

I received a copy of Sheriff Byers' statement on March 29, 1999, and a copy of the statement is attached for review. (See Attachment #3.)

The next interview was conducted with New Mexico State Parks Officer Byron Wilson and the following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: NM STATE PARKS OFFICER BYRON WILSON

New Mexico State Parks Officer Byron Wilson said that he was at the State Parks Office in the Elephant Butte area on March 22, 1999. He was on duty when he overheard the 911 call on his police scanner at work. He heard that Central Dispatch was dispatching a deputy to check out the residence at 513 Bass Road, when he recognized the residence to be one of the lease properties in the State Park.

Officer Wilson said that one of his job responsibilities is dealing with the owners of the property leases in the State Parks area. He responded to that location, when he came upon a small tan colored recreational vehicle being driven eastbound on Springland Boulevard by David Parker Ray. After he arrived at 513 Bass Road, he recognized the residence and told the deputies outside the residence, that he had just passed Mr. Ray on the road. Mr. Ray was seen traveling east on Springland Road.

Officer Wilson said that is when he left Mr. Ray's residence with Sheriff Byers to find Mr. Ray. They did locate Mr. Ray on Springland Boulevard and he was stopped. They identified a passenger he had with him as his girlfriend, Cindy Hendy.

Officer Wilson said that David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy were read their constitutional rights by Deputy David Elston and he understood that Ms. Hendy was later transported to the medical center for treatment of an injury she was complaining about.

Officer Wilson said that he returned to his office after David Parker Ray was detained and met up with another State Parks employee by the name of Jim Green. He identified Mr. Green as being the Wastewater Specialist for the State Parks. Mr. Green works next door to David Parker Ray at the Region #3 Maintenance Yard.

Officer Wilson said that Mr. Green mentioned during their conversation, that Mr. Ray had left work early today, because of some type of emergency at his home. Officer Wilson said that afterwards, he reviewed the lease file on the lease property at 513 Bass Road.

Officer Wilson found during his review of this lease that the lease had been changed December of 1994. The lease of the property was changed by name only. The names were changed from David S. and J. Lee Parker to David P. Ray. He could not locate any other documentation, why the name changed.

Officer Wilson said that after reviewing the signatures on both lease documents, he felt that David S. Parker was the same person identified as David P. Ray. He based this information on his review of the signatures and the information contained in both leases. He submitted a copy of the lease history information for my review. A copy of the lease history information is attached for review. (See Attachment #4.)

Officer Wilson concluded his interview and stated that he would submit a typewritten statement documenting his involvement in the case at a late date.

Upon the conclusion of this interview, I reviewed the signed lease documents and information contained in this file. I observed that the cursive signatures on both leases appeared to be the same in style and the signature signed under the name of David

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

P. Ray resembled the signature of David S. Parker.

I discovered that on October 21, 1983, the lease property was transferred from Fred J. Glover to David S. and J. Lee Parker. It remained under those names until December 12, 1994, when the name of the lessee was changed from David S. Parker to David P. Ray and has remained under this name since.

After the review of the lease, I met with the State Parks Officer Jerome Madrid, who identified himself as the State Parks Manager for Region #3. The following is a synopsis of this interview.

INTERVIEW: OFFICER JEROME MADRID

Officer Jerome Madrid advised me that he is the Region #3 Manager of the Elephant Butte State Parks and he had retrieved two sets of keys from David Parker Ray, after he was detained by the deputies. He retrieved the keys, because they belong to the State Parks Division and the keys are to several different areas around the State Park. He wanted to make sure the keys did not get lost or misplaced.

Officer Madrid advised me that one of the key rings contained fifteen (15) keys, while the other key ring contained eight (8) keys. He said the first set of keys was obtained from Mr. Ray while he was being detained for investigation and the other set of eight (8) keys, he retrieved from Mr. Ray's office, after he secured the office by padlocking it.

I then advised Officer Madrid that these two set of keys could be connected to the investigation and I requested that he transfer the keys over as evidence and he complied. This transfer was recorded on a New Mexico State Police Receipt of Property or Evidence form. For further information, refer to the attachment. (See Attachment #5.)

I then requested from Officer Madrid that he check with his department and see if any of the non-confidential employment history was available on David Parker Ray. I requested this to follow up any background references he had listed in his employment application. I also requested Mr. Ray's attendance records since he has been employed with the State Parks Division and I concluded this interview until I would meet with Officer Madrid again.

On March 23, 1999, I contacted New Mexico State Parks employee James H. Green, and scheduled an appointment with him at the training center. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: SPECIALIST JAMES H. GREEN

When I met with James H. Green, I was advised that he has been employed with the State Parks Division for the past five years. He presently is the Wastewater Specialist for the parks. He said that he is acquainted with David Parker Ray for sometime now and said that Mr. Ray is the mechanic for the State Parks Region #3. He said that his shop is right next to Mr. Ray's mechanic shop.

Mr. Green said about David Parker Ray, that he has always been a very private person, and he did not know much about him. He has never associated with him after work, nor has he ever been inside his residence.

Mr. Green said that as far as he knew, Mr. Ray has never mentioned to him knowing very much about computers and he knows that there is not one at his mechanic shop. Mr. Green said that Mr. Ray was very creative with his hands and is knowledgeable in some electronics. He said that Mr. Ray had received an award for a self-operational lighting system he invented.

Mr. Green confirmed that Mr. Ray was at work Monday, March 22, 1999. He said that Mr. Ray received an emergency call around 3:15 p.m., near the end of the day. Mr. Ray told him and Jon Martinez, the heavy equipment operator, that he had to leave work, because he had an emergency at his home.

Mr. Green said that Mr. Ray did not explain what had happened, but that he needed to leave and was seen leaving the shop in his tan colored recreational vehicle he owned,

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

when Mr. Green concluded his interview. I then scheduled an interview with Jon Martinez to confirm the above information.

On March 23, 1999 I met with Jon Martinez at the training center and the following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: JON MARTINEZ, HEAVY EQUIPEMENT OPERATOR

WHen I met with Jon Martinez, he confirmed that David P. Ray did leave his work early because of some type of emergency occurring at his residence. He said that after Mr. Ray had left his shop, he ended up parking Mr. Ray's service truck inside the garage and concluded his interview.

On March 24, 1999, I followed up the investigation by meeting with Border Patrol Agent Robert F. Johnson regarding his involvement in this ongoing investigation. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: AGENT ROBERT F. JOHNSTON

On March 23, 1999, I met with Border Patrol Agent Robert F. Johnson at the training center, regarding the March 22, 1999 incident. He advised he was on duty that day and he was on his routine patrol in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. He overheard on his two way radio that Central Dispatch was dispatching a deputy to a 911 hang-up call in the Elephant Butte area.

Agent Johnson said soon after that call, he heard Central Dispatch advise additional deputies of another call regarding a naked woman running around in the same vicinity, when he decided to assist them.

Agent Johnson said he met up with Deputy Peter Bowidowicz and Deputy Lucas Alvarez at a residence on Hot Springs Landing, when he observed a woman wearing a pink robe come out of the residence that was hysterical and trying to explain that she had been kidnapped and raped. He said that this lady had a metal collar around her neck that was attached to a chain that was at least fifteen (15) feet long.

Agent Johnston said the woman identified herself as Cindy Vigil and she was claiming to be from Albuquerque, New Mexico. She was covered with bruises, scratches and blood stains all over her body. Ms. Vigil appeared incoherent and kept stating, "He's going to kill me if he sees me." Agent Johnson said that she was referring to a person called "Dave or Ray." He said the victim referred to this person as being "one of them," when he realized she was referring to a police officer.

Agent Johnston said Deputy Lucas Alvarez and he ended up transporting Ms. Vigil to the Sierra Vista Medical Center in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. He said while en route with Ms. Vigil, she stated to them that she was a prostitute and she felt like she did a real stupid thing by going with the couple. She claimed that afterwards she was kidnapped and raped at this person's residence.

Agent Johnson said Ms. Vigil kept saying "Dave" made her do sexual acts against her will, and "he was going to kill her if he found her." She stated that David and his girlfriend had hung her by her arms, from chains connected to the ceiling, and whipped her. She said that the couple forced her to do several sexual acts while being video taped. Agent Johnson then concluded his interview by presenting me a copy of his typed statement. A copy of his statement is attached for review. (See Attachment #6.)

On March 23, 1999, Agent Wesley LaCuesta filed formal criminal charges against David P. Ray and Cindy Hendy for Kidnapping and for Criminal Sexual Penetration. Both subjects were subsequently arrested by him and taken for incarceration.

Agent LaCuesta advised me that the 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle, which was under my control, was used by the suspects to kidnap the victim Cynthia Vigil. Agent LaCuesta advised that he would be obtaining a search warrant, for the inspection of the interior of the vehicle, where it would be processed at the New Mexico State Police Headquarters in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

I then made arrangements to have the 1978 Toyota Royal recreation vehicle moved to the

---------------------------------------	---------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

New Mexico State Police Office in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, and it was towed by A & E Towing, where I secured it.

I then met with New Mexico State Parks Officer Jerome Madrid, regarding the employment history information regarding David Parker Ray. The following is a synopsis of this meeting.

MEETING: OFFICER JEROME MADRID

On March 23, 1999, I met with Officer Jerome Madrid, where I was advised that David Parker Ray is under his supervision. Mr. Ray's position is as a mechanic for the Region #3 area. Mr. Ray's has been employed for about five years and his job description is to repair and service any vehicles or equipment that is assigned and used by the State Parks Division.

Officer Madrid said that Mr. Ray is responsible for researching the best price on replacement parts needed for their vehicles. Mr. Ray usually calls local car part dealers for prices and some other dealers from out of town.

Officer Madrid advised that the mechanic's office is located off of State Road 195, at the Region #3 Maintenance Yard, which is on State Parks property in the Elephant Butte area. Officer Madrid confirmed that Mr. Ray does not have access to any on-line computer at his shop on the office telephone number (505) 894-2306.

Officer Madrid advised that he really does not know very much about Mr. Ray's private life, but that he does his job. He said that Mr. Ray is a very private person. He advised me during this meeting that he had not received any reply from his department on Mr. Ray's personnel file, but will get back with me when he does. I then asked Officer Madrid to escort me to Mr. Ray's office, so I could observe this area.

Upon arriving at Mr. Ray's mechanic shop, I immediately noticed that Mr. Ray's office was padlocked. Officer Madrid advised that he had padlocked the office after Mr. Ray was formally charged, so no one would enter his office while Mr. Ray was gone.

Officer Madrid pointed out a white colored service truck parked inside the garage of the maintenance shop. The 1995 Chevrolet pickup is assigned to Mr. Ray, but belongs to the State Parks Division. He said it is registered under the State Agency name of the Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department (EMNRD), in Santa Fe, New Mexico. This service truck displayed a New Mexico Government license plate of G211403.

A registration inquiry through the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division in Santa Fe, New Mexico, revealed that the State Government license plate of G211403 is registered to the GSD-SCFA and EMNRD, with an address of P.O. Box 26110, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87502. A copy of this registration is attached for review. (See Attachment #7.)

Before leaving the mechanic shop, I advised Officer Madrid that there could be additional items of evidence in either the office, or the service vehicle. I requested Officer Madrid to keep both areas secured until Case Agent Wesley LaCuesta was able to inspect and search these areas. I then placed evidence tape strips on all the exterior doors of the service truck and on Mr. Ray's office to deny entry.

Before I left the area, I also requested of Officer Madrid copies of the long distance telephone records pertaining to the mechanic's shop telephone of (894-2306). I then concluded this meeting.

I followed up the investigation by meeting and interviewing Sierra County Deputy Peter Bowidowicz about his involvement in this case. The following is a synopsis of his interview.

INTERVIEW: DEPUTY PETER BOWIDOWICZ

On March 23, 1999 I met with Deputy Peter Bowidowicz regarding the incident he responded to on March 22, 1999. Deputy Bowidowicz advised that, during his regular shift, he overheard Central Dispatch notify them of the 911 hang-up call, and about the other call regarding a rape victim being at one of the residences in the Hot Springs Landing area.

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

Deputy Bowidowicz said that as he was responding to the Elephant Butte area, he came upon a woman in a green car, at Hot Springs Landing and Ridge Road. The woman identified herself as Patricia Mazzella Horne. She was reporting to him that a naked woman with a chain around her neck attempted to get into her car. She told him that she got frightened and drove off. Ms. Horne left her name and address where she could be reached for any follow up interview. Her address is 12236 Cordova N. E., in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Deputy Bowidowicz advised that another witness was later identified as Doris Mitchell. She mentioned to him that she had witnessed the naked woman running down the road. Ms. Mitchell lives at 3016 Daisy in El Paso, Texas, but has a seasonal residence at the corner of Hot Springs Landing and Bass Road in Elephant Butte, New Mexico.

Deputy Bowidowicz said that, after speaking to Ms. Horne, he proceeded along Hot Springs Landing, searching for the naked woman, when he was waived down by Mr. Don Breech. Mr. Breech told him that a naked woman was inside his home with his wife Donna Breech. He said this woman came running inside his home, screaming about being raped and kidnapped.

Deputy Bowidowicz said that Mr. Breech's residence is located at 601 Catfish Road and Hot Springs Landing Road and their telephone number is (505) 744-5828. He advised that Deputy Lucas Alvarez and Border Patrol Agent Robert Johnston arrived shortly afterwards. This lady was identified as Cynthia Vigil. She was wearing a pink robe and had a metal manacle around her neck.

Deputy Bowidowicz said Ms. Vigil was very emotional and kept stating that she had been raped by a ranger and could not believe she had escaped. She had dried blood around her face and hands and kept stating that "Ray" and his girlfriend did this to her. All she wanted to do was to go back home to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Deputy Bowidowicz said that Ms. Vigil was then taken to the medical center for treatment by Deputy Alvarez and Border Patrol Agent Johnston. After leaving the Breech residence, he met up with Sheriff Terry Byers at 513 Bass Road and advised him of the incident involving Cynthia Vigil.

Deputy Bowidowicz said after arriving at the residence, he recognized the residence belonging to David Parker Ray. He recalled serving several civil subpoenas to David Parker Ray and his girlfriend, Cindy Hendy, at this address. He advised the Sheriff officers about the victim's allegations, when the other deputies went to locate Mr. Ray.

Deputy Bowidowicz said he secured the residence, when he observed through the front door, a bedroom containing shackles and various sexual items. He understood that the investigation was being transferred to the New Mexico State Police and he kept a crime scene log until he relinquished his responsibility to Deputy Rex Beard.

Deputy Bowidowicz presented me a copy of his written statement, documenting his involvement and concluded his interview. A copy of this statement is attached for review. For further information refer to the attachment. (See Attachment #8.)

On March 23, 1999, I met with Sierra County Deputy David Elston at the training center regarding the March 22, 1999 incident. Deputy Elston advised that at approximately 3:30 p.m., Central Dispatch had dispatched him and Deputy Lucas Alvarez to 513 Bass Road, a residence in the Elephant Butte area to verify the welfare of the person or persons living there. Central Dispatch also advised that there was another report of a woman at 301 Springland Road who was naked and had a chain around her neck.

Deputy Elston said that he proceeded to that location and ended up dropping Deputy Lucas Alvarez off at the 301 Springland Road residence, while he proceeded to check the 513 Bass Road residence. He met up with the State Park Officers Chris Degase and Michael Lanford, upon arriving at the residence. They advised him that no one had answered at the residence, when Sheriff Terry Byers arrived to assist them.

Deputy Elston said that at the time, he did not know that the naked lady and this residence were connected to each other. They decided to check the residence anyway. He and Officer Lanford entered the residence, through an unlocked rear sliding glass door. He noticed while walking through a broken glass on a small bed in the living room. He proceeded into another room, when he observed various restraint and sexual devices there, with pictures and photographs of naked women in sexual bondage positions.

Deputy Elston said that after the residence was secured, Deputy Peter Bowidowicz arrived from 301 Springland Road, where the naked lady was at. He said that Deputy Bowidowicz mentioned what the victim had stated to them, and they connected the incident to David Parker Ray, the owner of this residence on Bass Road.

Deputy Elston understood that the victim, Cynthia Vigil, was mentioning a State Park Ranger, known as "Ray," had kidnapped and raped her for several days. He said that it was not until later that Sheriff Terry Byers had located David Parker Ray on Springland Boulevard, that he responded to assist Sheriff Byers. He identified the driver to be David Parker Ray and the girlfriend Cindy Hendy.

Deputy Elston said that the small tan colored recreational vehicle driven by Mr. Ray was towed from the scene and taken to the training center. After detaining both subjects, he advised David Parker Ray and Cindy Hendy of their constitutional rights and ended up transporting both of them to the training center and concluded his statement.

Deputy Elston submitted a copy of his statement for the ongoing investigation. For further information, refer to the attachment. (See Attachment #9.)

On March 23, 1999, I placed a request with Director Barbara Scgakofski of the Sierra County Regional Dispatch Authority, for a copy of the 911 call on the March 22, 1999 incident. The Sierra County Regional Dispatch Authority is located at 100 A. Date Street, in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico.

Director Schalkofski said she would comply with my request and she will supply a copy of the emergency call, along with a copy of their radio desk logs, as soon as she was able to copy the recording. She also said that the Sierra County Regional Dispatch Authority is also known as Central Dispatch and she concluded the telephone conversation.

On March 24, 1999, I relinquished my control of the 1978 Toyota Royal Recreational Vehicle and transferred the vehicle over to New Mexico State Police Evidence Custodian David Bangs. For further information, refer to the attachment. (See Attachment #10.)

On March 25, 1999, I received from State Parks Officers Chris Degase, Michael Lanford and Byron Wilson, their typed statements documenting their involvement in this investigation. These statements were reviewed and found not to have any new information. Copies of their statements are attached for review. (See Attachment #11.)

On March 26, 1999, I met with Officer Jerome Madrid, where he provided me with a copy of the long distance telephone records of calls placed from the telephone in David Ray's office (894-2306). The telephone records covered the period from March 1, 1998, to January 1, 1999. Officer Madrid advised that he has not acquired the rest of the records, but he will submit them upon receiving them.

This transfer of telephone records was recorded on a New Mexico State Police Receipt of Evidence or Property form. Copies of these telephone records are attached for review. (See Attachment #12.)

During this same meeting with Officer Madrid, I received copies of the State Parks Attendance Records on David Parker Ray. These attendance records on Mr. Ray covered the employment period from July 29, 1995, to March 19, 1999. The meeting was then concluded.

I recorded the transfer of the Attendance Records on a separate New Mexico State Police Receipt of Property or Evidence Form and concluded the meeting with Officer Madrid. Copies of the attendance records are attached for review. (See Attachment #13.)

On March 26, 1999, I received copies of the radio logs and a taped recording of the 911 emergency call of March 22, 1999. These radio logs and the taped recording was received from Cindy Torres Harris, the Assistant Director of the Sierra County Regional Dispatch Authority.

The transfer of the above items was recorded on a New Mexico State Police Receipt of Property and Evidence form. The photostatic copies of the radio logs are attached and a copy of the cassette of the 911 call is available upon request.

---------------------------------------	----------------------	-------------------------	------------	----------

Both of these items were entered into evidence and later transferred to Agent Wesley LaCuesta. A copy of the evidence form is attached for review. (See Attachment #14.)

On March 27, 1999, I met with Officer Jerome Madrid once more, where I was then provided with copies of the additional long distance telephone records from May 15, 1995, to May 16, 1997. The transfer of the telephone records was recorded on a New Mexico State Police Receipt of Property or Evidence form and a copy is attached for review. (See Attachment #15.)

On March 30, 1999, I placed an inquiry on the ownership of the 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle that David Parker Ray had in his possession. An earlier inquiry through the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division revealed that the recreational vehicle, with identification number #RH28140120, was registered to a Tina Severns.

This New Mexico license plate issued to this vehicle was the same number of 1807-RVP. A copy of this registration inquiry is attached for review. (See Attachment #16.)

I then proceeded to locate Ms. Severns by checking in the telephone directory for the Truth or Consequences area. I discovered that there was not a listing for her, but there was a listing to a Vivian Severns at (505) 744-5435.

When I called this telephone number and spoke to Vivian Severns, I discovered that Tina Severns was her daughter and that Tina was no longer living with them, but was living out of town. Vivian Severns confirmed that her daughter did own a 1978 Toyota recreational vehicle, but sold it a year ago.

She said that Don Walker, the owner of a used car lot known as Marina Trading Company, had sold the vehicle for them and that I could confirm it by calling Mr. Walker at (505) 744-5035. I then concluded the telephone conversation and place another telephone call to Don Walker.

When I reached Don Walker and advised him of the ongoing investigation, I requested the information regarding the sale of the 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle. I was advised by Mr. Walker that he is the owner of the Marina Trading Company, which is located off State Road #195 and Hawthorne in Elephant Butte, New Mexico.

Mr. Walker confirmed that around a year ago Tina Severns had consigned her 1978 Toyota Royal recreational vehicle to him to sell. He said that he did sell it to David Parker Ray and did not realize that Mr. Ray had registered it. Mr. Walker said the sale occurred sometime back in May or June of 1998, when he concluded the telephone conversation.

On March 30, 1999, I met with State Park Manager Jerome Madrid, where I was provided with a copy of David Parker Ray's non-classified personnel information. The information included his application and personal data since Mr. Ray has been employed with the State Parks Division. A copy of this information is attached. (See Attachment #17.)

On March 30, 1999, I was requested by Agent Wesley LaCuesta to inquire with the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division in Santa Fe, New Mexico, into all vehicles and vessels registered under the name of David S. Parker or David Parker Ray. Also requested was the registration information on the mobile home located at 513 Bass Road. This information was for a search warrant that was being prepared by Agent LaCuesta.

On March 30, 1999, I followed up by placing an inquiry with the Sierra County Assessors Office on the mobile home at 513 Bass Road. The inquiry revealed that the mobile home registration for 1999 is currently under the name of David S. and J. Lee Parker. The mailing address is P.O. Box 148, Elephant Butte, New Mexico. A copy of the New Mexico Uniform Property Record Card is attached for review. (See Attachment #18.)

On March 31, 1999, I received my inquiry into all registered vehicles and vessels, owned by David Parker Ray, through the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The Office of the Attorney General in Santa Fe, New Mexico, supplied the vehicle and vessel information. The following is a list of the vehicles and vessels owned by David Parker Ray.

LOCATION OF OCCURRENCE
Elephant Butte

On or about the 22nd day of March 1999, at approximately 1530 p.m. I heard Central Dispatch alert my deputies of a 911 call at Elephant Butte Lake. Dispatch advised that there was a nude female with a chin around her neck, running around hysterical. Along with my deputies I also responded to the call.

I arrived at the scene, 513 Bass Road, where I met with Deputy Elston and State Parks Rangers Lanford and Degasse.

At that time Deputy Elston and State Parks Officer Degasse did a search of the residence to ensure that there were no other victims and that the suspect David P. Ray was not in the residence. Once the residence was cleared I entered the residence for a short time as an overview. At that time the residence was secured and it was determined that the State Police should be called in because of their resources to process the scene.

At approximately 1540 State Parks Officer Willson arrived at the scene, I briefed him on what was going on and Officer Willson advised me that he had just passed David Ray on Warm Springs Blvd. At that time myself and Parks Officer Willson left the scene in my unit and proceeded West to Warm Springs Blvd. While on Springland Blvd., which intersects, with Warm Springs Blvd we located David Ray in a small Toyota type camper. At that time we stopped David Ray where he and the passenger of the vehicle Cindy Hendy were taken in to custody.

Both subjects were transported to the State Parks Training Center and held for State Police Investigators.

The vehicle that Ray was driving was transported via towing service to the State Parks Training Center where it was also secured for investigators from the State Police.
